

CHRONIQUE—ANNOUNCEMENTS

C.P.A. ANNUAL CONFERENCE 1971

The fifteenth annual conference of the Canadian Philosophical Association will be held in June 1971 at Memorial University, St. John's, Newfoundland. Professor David Braybrooke, Department of Philosophy, Dalhousie University, Halifax, N.S. will act as chairman of the programme committee; members who wish to submit papers for the committee's consideration should get in touch with him, if possible enclosing abstracts.

ATLANTIC REGIONAL CONFERENCE:

On April 10 and 11 the President of the Canadian Philosophical Association and the philosophy departments of St. Mary's and Dalhousie, with the generous support of the Canada Council, initiated the first Atlantic regional conference of the C.P.A. at St. Mary's University, Halifax, Nova Scotia. Papers were presented by Professors C. Welch (Mount Allison), D. Braybrooke (Dalhousie), R. Gruner (St. Mary's), and E. Schaper (Glasgow), the titles of which respectively were Extra-Ordinary Language, The Logic of the Succession of Cultures, The Value of History and Evaluations within History, and Are Transcendental Deductions Impossible?. An organisational meeting, chaired by Professor F. H. Page (Dalhousie), tentatively outlined the aim, conditions of membership, method of selecting an executive annually, and the table of contents of a bi-annual news letter. The Université de Moncton has accepted the responsibility of convening and hosting the conference for 1970-71; St. Francis Xavier jointly with Xavier College for 1971-72; and the University of New Brunswick jointly with St. Thomas University for 1972-73. Anyone interested in acquiring further information, particularly with respect to the 1970-71 conference, should write to Professeur Maurice Rainville, Chef du Département, Département de Philosophie, Université de Moncton, N.-B.

1971 INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS FOR LOGIC, METHODOLOGY AND PHILOSOPHY OF SCIENCE:

The Fourth International Congress for Logic, Methodology and Philosophy of Science will be held in Bucharest, Romania, from August

CHRONIQUE

29 to September 4, 1971, under the auspices of the International Union for History and Philosophy of Science.

The proceedings of the Congress, arranged in twelve sections, will consist of a number of invited addresses and symposia, in addition to brief contributed papers. The closing date for submission of abstracts of contributed papers is 1 March 1971.

Information about membership fees, housing, and other details of the Congress may be obtained by writing to: Professor Gr. C. Moisil, Institutul de Matematica, Calea Grivitei 21, Bucharest 12, Romania, or Professor Patrick Suppes, Ventura Hall, Stanford University, Stanford, California 94305, U.S.A.

UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO FALL COLLOQUIUM 1970:

The theme of this year's colloquium is "Conceptual Change". Papers will be presented by Wilfrid Sellars, Stephan Korner, Paul Ziff, Hilary Putnam. The dates are October 30 to November 1. Full information and registration forms are available from Glenn Pearce, colloquium chairman, or Mrs. O. M. Hitchins, both in care of the Department of Philosophy, University of Western Ontario, London 72, Ontario.

NEW JOURNALS:

1) The Canadian Journal of Philosophy, to be published by the Canadian Association for Publishing in Philosophy, is to appear for the first time in January 1971. Editorial policy is, provisionally, to give priority to Canadian material, to accept English language material predominantly, and to consider material in any field of philosophy. Manuscripts may be sent to any of the following: Professor W. Creery, York University, Downsview 463, Ontario; Professor Helier Robinson, University of Guelph, Guelph, Ontario; Professor J. Bristol, McMaster University, Hamilton 15, Ontario. Subscriptions at $10 per annum may be sent to the Canadian Association for Publishing in Philosophy at the Department of Philosophy, University of Guelph.

2) Idealistic Studies, an organ of expression for studies of philosophical idealism, to appear three times a year, edited by Robert N. Beck and published by Clark University Press. Historical and contemporary statements of idealism are encouraged, as are critical studies of idealistic themes. Articles relating idealism to other philosophic movements, including current analytic trends, are welcome.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Because idealism has had a wide expression in literary, social and religious forms, the Journal also serves an interdisciplinary as well as a philosophic function. Yearly subscription rates are: individuals, $5.00; libraries and institutions, $8.00; special student rate, $3.00. Single copies: $2.00. All communications, including manuscripts and subscriptions should be sent to the Editor, Department of Philosophy, Clark University Worcester, Massachusetts 01610, U.S.A.
