NEW HISTORICAL LITERARY STUDY

Essays on Reproducing Texts,
Representing History

Edited by Jeffrey N. Cox and Larry J. Reynolds

This volume, growing out of the celebrated turn toward history in literary criticism, showcases some of the best new historical work being done today in textual theory, literary history, and cultural criticism.

Contributors include Janet Aikins, Lawrence Buell, Ralph Cohen, Margaret Ezell, Stephen Greenblatt, Terence Hoagwood, Jerome McGann, Robert Newman, Katherine O'Keeffe, Lee Patterson, Michael Rogin, Edward Said, and Hortense Spillers.

The editors' introduction situates the various essays within contemporary criticism and explores the multiple, contestatory issues at stake within the historicist enterprise.

The Collected Works of
Samuel Taylor Coleridge: Volume 9

AIDS TO REFLECTION

Edited by John Beer

In this, the first major edition of Aids to Reflection, the intricate story of Coleridge's changing conception of religion unfolds. The introduction traces the subsequent influence of the work in England and America; appendixes include James Marsh's influential preface to the first American edition, which is reproduced here in its entirety.

ERASMUS, MAN OF LETTERS

The Construction of Charisma in Print

Lisa Jardine

For many people familiar with the conventional history of the sixteenth century, the name Erasmus of Rotterdam conjures up a golden age of scholarly integrity. Lisa Jardine, however, takes a different view. As she portrays him, Erasmus self-consciously created his own reputation as the central figure of the European intellectual world, drawing heavily on the skills of his following of printers, copy editors, proofreaders, and minor authors.

"... a stunning example of what historical scholarship can accomplish: it will provide literary and cultural historians with a model by which to measure their future productions."

—Constance Jordan, Claremont Graduate School

PMLA (ISSN 0030-8129) is published six times a year, in January, March, May, September, October, and November, by the Modern Language Association of America. Membership in the association is open to persons who are professionally interested in the modern languages and literatures. Annual dues, which include subscription to PMLA, are based on members' incomes and are graduated as follows: student members (four years maximum), $20; new regular members (first year), $35; regular members (income under $15,000), $25; regular members (income $15,000–$20,000), $40; regular members (income $20,000–$30,000), $50; regular members (income $30,000–$40,000), $65; regular members (income $40,000–$50,000), $75; regular members (income $50,000–$60,000), $85; regular members (income $60,000–$70,000), $95; regular members (income $70,000–$80,000), $105; regular members (income over $80,000), $125; foreign members, same as regular members (use the American-dollar equivalent to ascertain the dues category). Membership applications are available on request.

The subscription price of PMLA for libraries and other institutions is $104. A subscription including a bound volume at the end of the year is $239, domestic and foreign. Agents deduct 4% as their fee. Single copies of the January, March, May, and October issues may be obtained for $12 each; the September (Directory) issue for $50; the November (Program) issue for $35. These prices will go into effect for all volumes on 1 January 1994.

Issues for the current year are available from the Member and Customer Services Office of the association (212 614-6377). Claims for undelivered issues will be honored if they are received within one year of the publication date; thereafter the single-issue price will be charged.

For information about the availability of back issues, inquire of Kraus Reprint, Millwood, NY 10546; 914 762-2200. Early and current volumes may be obtained on microfilm from University Microfilms, Ann Arbor, MI 48106. Purchase of current volumes on film is restricted to subscribers of the journal.

The office of publication and editorial offices are located at 10 Astor Place, New York, NY 10003-6981; 212 475-9500.

All communications including notices of changes of address should be sent to the Member and Customer Services Office of the association. If a change of address also involves a change of institutional affiliation, that office should be informed of this fact at the same time.
