International Theory

A Journal of International Politics, Law and Philosophy

journals.cambridge.org/int

Editors

Duncan Snidal, University of Chicago

Alexander Wendt, The Ohio State University

Launching in 2009, International Theory invites papers on theory of all varieties and from all disciplines, provided it addresses problems of politics, broadly defined and relates to the international.

International Theory welcomes scholarship that uses evidence from the real world to advance theoretical arguments. However, it is intended as a forum where scholars can develop theoretical arguments in depth without an expectation of extensive empirical analysis.

Full instructions for contributors can be found here: journals.cambridge.org/int/ifc

Manuscripts for consideration or any queries should be sent by email to the Editors at it.mershon@osu.edu

International Theory is published with the support of the Mershon Center of The Ohio State University

EUROPEAN POLITICAL SCIENCE REVIEW

journals.cambridge.org/epsr

EDITORS

Donatella Della Porta, European University Institute
B. Guy Peters, University of Pittsburgh

AN IMPORTANT NEW JOURNAL

The European Political Science Review (EPSR) meets the needs of all who wish to maintain a broad awareness of important new work in the discipline.

INTERNATIONAL SCOPE

EPSR publishes original research of the highest scholarly quality from leading political scientists around the world. It also features the work of the best young scholars in the discipline.

WIDE-RANGING COVERAGE

EPSR is wide-ranging, broad-minded and embraces all the key themes and approaches of the discipline. It is not restricted to any particular methodology or regional focus. EPSR encourages scholarship that reaches across fields of substantive interest and methodological commitments. It reflects the full richness and diversity of the discipline and at the same time seeks creatively to reach beyond its borders.

Notes for contributors

Manuscripts

The Editors welcome submission of material for consideration as a main article or as a review article. The length required for main articles is 9–12,000 words, including footnotes, and longer submissions will not normally be reviewed. Review articles should be about 4,000 words and replies about 2,000 words. These are also sent to independent referees. The Review is a refereed journal, and contributors should allow time for the process of refereeing to take place. It is the author's responsibility to provide the editors with an accurate total word count for all articles on submission.

Prospective authors should submit their manuscripts by electronic mail (RISsub@st-andrews.ac.uk) or on disk. Submission of manuscripts is now also online via the website: <<http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/ris>>. Detailed instructions for submitting your manuscript online can be found at the submission website by clicking on the Instructions and Forms link in the top right hand of the screen; and then clicking on the Online Submission Instructions for Authors icon on the following page.

Manuscripts should be typed on one side of the paper only with generous margins and should be double spaced throughout. An abstract of 100 words plus a short biographical note (appropriate for Notes on Contributors) should accompany the manuscript. To guarantee anonymity, authors should include a title page without their names, and remove any reference to themselves from the manuscript.

When an article has been accepted for publication, the author must send a copy of the final version by e-mail attachment or on computer disk (IBM compatible PC) giving details of the word processing software used, and also one hard copy typescript. The Editors reserve the right not to accept articles not presented in the house style, details of which are given below.

References and notes

These should be amalgamated and signalled serially within each article by superscript numerals. References and notes should be at the foot of each page. References should give full biographical details, including place of publication and publisher, at first mention. Thereafter the author's surname and a short title should be used (not op. cit.). A cross-reference to the original citation, e.g. '(see n.4 above)', may also be added if the short title reference is not immediately clear. The title of an article should appear in single inverted commas; the title of a book or journal should be underlined. Main words should be 'first-letter' capitalised in article and book titles.

References and notes should be typed in the form of the following examples:

1. Lawrence Freedman, The Evolution of Nuclear Strategy (London: Macmillan, 1981), pp. 51–3.
2. Freedman, Evolution of Nuclear Strategy, p. 152.
3. Bruce Cumings, 'Japan and the Asian Periphery', in Melvyn P. Leffler and David S. Painter (eds.), Origins of the Cold War (London: Routledge, 1994), pp. 226–9.
4. New York Times, 13 May 1987.
5. Cumings, 'Japan', p. 216.
6. J. P. Cornford, 'The Illusion of Decision', British Journal of Political Science, 4 (1974), pp. 231–43.

Subheadings

Contributors are encouraged to include up to two levels of subheading in articles to provide 'signposts' for readers. They should be typed flush left with only the first word and any proper names capitalised.

General

First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the editors a current address and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs, by airmail where appropriate, within three days of receiving them.

Authors of articles and review articles will receive twenty-five free offprints. Additional copies may be ordered on the form provided which must be returned at proof stage.

Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyright, on certain conditions, to the British International Studies Association so that their interest may be safeguarded.
