

John Wesley: A
Theological Biography
Volume 2, Part I

Martin Schmidt. Translated by Norman Goldhawk. A continuation of the noted German church historian's probe into Wesley's spiritual struggle to do God's will. This volume begins immediately following his conversion experience in 1738. Covers his work with the Moravians and the opposition he faced during the Wesleyan Revival. $12.95

History of Primitive Christianity

Hans Conzelmann. Translated by John E. Steely. For the non-specialist, a helpful survey of information sources, chronology, variations and problems in the developing church—covers approximately seventy years following the life and ministry of Jesus. Sheds light on the growth of the New Testament. Appendices. Bibliography. Indexes. Cloth, $8.50; paper, $3.25

at your local bookstore
abingdon