

Tables

2.1	Expenditure components and sources of funds, 1999–2019 (as % shares of GDP)	page 27
2.2	Macroeconomic and fiscal indicators (2002–2019)	31
2.3	Metrics of poverty and inequality in Mozambique, 1996/1997–2014/2015	32
2.4	Household-level indicators of access/ownership of key assets	33
2.5	Comparison of social sector spending and outcomes	34
3.1	Overview of the sample	52
3.2	Composition of the sample	52
3.3	Geographical origin of the respondents	53
3.4	Overview of ranking distribution	55
3.5	Top issues with significant differences between men and women	66
A3.1	Top issues with significant differences between respondents affiliated with the business sector and the other respondents	80
A3.2	Top issues with significant differences between respondents affiliated with academia and the other respondents	81
A3.3	Top issues with significant differences between respondents affiliated with the public administration and the other respondents	82
4.1	Food production, 2010–2017	91
5.1	Results of the SACMEQ II and III studies: proficiency of sixth class pupils	122
5.2	Performance of third class pupils, %	123
6.1	What is known about the practice of traditional medicine	142
6.2	What is not known about the practice of traditional medicine	143
7.1	OIL repayments up to the first half of 2008	178
8.1	Public budget revenues (percentage of total current revenues)	188
8.2	Public budget expenditures (percentage of current and investment expenditures)	189

A8.1	Selected reforms in the PFM system	211
A8.2	Selected PFM reforms, 2003–2009	212
9.1	Proceedings in the courts	217
10.1	Degrees of dependency	244
11.1	Extractive sector main institutions	282
11.2	Public investment projects financed by external public debt (2014–2019)	285
12.1	A synthetic ordering of the institutional factors impeding Mozambique’s long-term development	320