

CONFERENCE ON BRITISH STUDIES PRIZE

The Conference on British Studies will award its third triennial prize of three hundred dollars in November, 1966. The prize will be given for the best book published between January 1, 1963 and December 31, 1965, by an American or Canadian scholar. It must be the author's first book. Its subject must lie either within the field of English History or Commonwealth History. The prize will be awarded by a panel of judges consisting of:

J. H. Hexter, Yale University

A. R. M. Lower, Queen's University

Sidney R. Packard, Smith College

Enquiries and recommendations should be addressed to the Chairman, Professor J. H. Hexter, Washington University, St. Louis, Missouri.

The past recipients of the prize are: Philip P. Poirier, Ohio State University, 1960; C. Warren Hollister, University of California, 1963.

The only biography of Sir Henry Clinton, the gifted British general whose baffling personality courted defeat for himself — and for England —
during the American Revolution

PORTRAIT OF A GENERAL

By WILLIAM B. WILLCOX

With fascinating excerpts from Sir Henry's voluminous private papers, an interpretation of his personality, and an analysis of the strategy that lost England her American Colonies. 8 maps and two portraits.

The British Labour Party

A SHORT HISTORY

Carl F. Brand

Especially timely in view of the recent rise in the popularity and political influence of the Labour Party, this straightforward narrative extends from the rise of political Labour in the 1880's to the present day, dealing chiefly with the period since 1914. While the book's emphasis is upon the policies and programs accepted by the party majority and leadership, attention is also paid to the frequently colorful minority movements within the party. $7.50

Sir Thomas Wyatt and His Background

Patricia Thomson

This study examines the life and work of one of the greatest innovators of English literature against his social and literary background. Wyatt's life has an interest independent of his work, for he was a diplomat and courtier under Henry VIII, and was a poet only in such time as he could spare from an active professional life. Part I is biographical. In part II, Wyatt's poetry and prose are analyzed, with emphasis on his greatest achievement, the first group of sonnets in the English language. $7.50

Elizabethan Privateering 1585-1603

K. R. ANDREWS

Dr. Andrews shows that Elizabethan privateering was closely connected with trade (especially with the colonies) and was then the main form of English maritime warfare, figuring importantly in the defeat of Spain. He discusses the role privateering played in overseas expansion and points out the growth of corruption in the administration. $7.50

Temporal Pillars

G. F. A. BEST

A history of Queen Anne's Bounty and of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners from their origins to their amalgamation in 1948. 'Brings Barchester out of the mist of legend, dissects it deftly and parades the anatomy with a delicious air of irony mingled with sympathy.'

THE JOURNAL OF BRITISH STUDIES
TRINITY COLLEGE
HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT

The Journal of British Studies is published under the auspices of the Conference on British Studies. It was founded in 1961 as a result of the imaginative generosity of a Trinity alumnus, Mr. Frederick E. Hasler (Hon. LL.D. 1957). Trinity College and Mr. George M. Ferris (B.A. 1916) have since joined Mr. Hasler to support publication of the Journal.

The Journal appears twice in the academic year, in the autumn and in the spring.

The annual subscription is $4.00. Commonwealth and foreign subscribers may remit by personal check or by check through their bankers, depending on their national exchange regulations.

Checks for subscriptions and enquiries concerning advertising rates should be addressed to the Business Manager, British Studies, Box 1315, Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut, 06106.

Correspondence concerning manuscripts should be sent to Professor Willson H. Coates, Department of History, University of Rochester, Rochester, New York, 14627.

Volume IV, No. 2 will be published in May, 1965. For the convenience of subscribers who plan to have their copies bound, a title page containing a table of contents will be supplied every two years.

ENGLISH PHILANTHROPY, 1660-1960

By DAVID OWEN

In a pioneering survey of the individual and collective efforts of English philanthropists through the years and their influence on the England of today, the author shows that philanthropy played a major part in disclosing the real dimensions of the social problem. A Belknap Press Book. $11.95

THE POLITICS OF CONSCIENCE

T. H. Green and His Age

By MELVIN RICHTER

Few other thinkers exerted a greater influence upon British thought and public policy between 1880 and 1914 than T. H. Green. Applying techniques of analysis taken from the history of ideas and sociology, this book reveals for the first time the full range of his influence. $7.50

ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON AND THE FICTION OF ADVENTURE

By ROBERT KIELY

In his first full-scale serious evaluation of Stevenson's major works in nearly thirty-five years, the author persuasively argues for a fundamental re-assessment of a literary figure who has long been dismissed as a children's entertainer. $5.50

SHAKESPEARE'S "TROILOUS AND CRESSIDA" AND ITS SETTING

By ROBERT KIMBROUGH

Utilizing a new critical method, the author here subjects one of Shakespeare's most difficult and perplexing plays to an intensive aesthetic and historical examination in order to solve the problems which it presents when read as a piece of dramatic literature written at a particular time, for a particular audience, and for a particular purpose. $4.75
