

How a great school helped shape
the life of the American Nation

Yale and the Ministry

By ROLAND BAINTON

For two and a half centuries Yale and Southern New England were—in a sense—one community. In YALE AND THE MINISTRY, this amazing epoch comes alive. The book is enlivened by sketches of many of the men whose pioneering theological and social ideas affected the thinking of the whole nation—David Brainerd, Jonathan Edwards, Lyman and Henry Ward Beecher, Horace Bushnell, Samuel Seabury, Nathaniel W. Taylor, the Timothy Dwights and many others.

YALE AND THE MINISTRY is, in effect, a history of Yale University through the nineteenth century. It is, moreover, a demonstration of the fruitful compatibility of the three great strains of theology, piety and social concern.

"A superb contribution to the literature of American history . . . vast knowledge is matched by an amazing flair for the relevant fact and the telling phrase."

History of Christianity 1650-1950

JAMES HASTINGS NICHOLS, Divinity School and Federated Theological Faculty, University of Chicago

A perceptive study of the secularization of the West, this book examines the changing relation of the Christian faith to society, culture, and the state from the Treaty of Westphalia to the present day. The events and tendencies of four great cultural and religious divisions are traced: the Latin and Roman Catholic; the Germanic and Lutheran; the Orthodox Slavic and Greek; and the English-speaking related denominations. The Younger Churches in non-European cultures also receive careful treatment. 493 pp. $5.00

"Dr. Nichols opens the course of the life of the Christian Church with a precision and detail which evidence mastery of not only the history of the Church but of the culture of the Western world." — Religious Education

REVIVALISM AND SOCIAL REFORM

Timothy L. Smith. A startling new thesis on the origins of the social gospel which repudiates the belief that social reforms originated in the liberal theology of the 19th century. It proves they actually arose from the revivalism in the years 1840-65. $4

CHRISTIAN PERFECTION AND AMERICAN METHODISM

John L. Peters. A study of the Wesleyan doctrine of perfection in America—how it fell into a state of neglect, its revival after the Civil War, its spread to other denominations, and a summary of the doctrine as it is being taught today. Comprehensive index and bibliography. $4

FOUNDATIONS OF AMERICAN FREEDOM

A. Mervyn Davies. Our neglected debt to Calvin comes to light with new emphasis in this timely study of the foundation of American freedom. Step-by-step the author shows how the ideas of Calvin and his followers developed through history—to give us liberal democracy. $3.50

AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF PETER CARTWRIGHT

Introduction by Charles L. Wallis. Cartwright was one of the earliest and best-known circuit riders. This is the remarkable personal narrative interspersed with his views on his church, and the problems of his time—the frontier, slavery, western migration and others. $3.75

COUNT ZINZENDORF

John R. Weinlick. For the first time in English, the story of Nicolaus Ludwig von Zinzendorf, the Saxon nobleman who became the spiritual father of the Renewed Moravian Church. Includes an account of his visit to the American Moravian colonies. $4.75

HYMN TUNE NAMES

Robert Guy McCutchan. A unique reference work on the sources and significance of 2,000 hymn tune names. Gives the origins, history, pronunciation and general background—with four comprehensive indexes so that a hymn can be located by name, opening phrases, first lines, or melody. $3.75
