CEP Teaching Fellowships in Eastern Europe, Former Soviet Union, and Mongolia for 2002-03

The Civic Education Project (CEP), an international non-profit organization dedicated to university reform in post-communist countries, is accepting applications for its 2002-03 Visiting Faculty Fellowship Program. CEP awards teaching fellowships to faculty and advanced graduate students in the social sciences, law and journalism/media studies. Fellows teach undergraduate students via English.

CEP partner universities are located throughout Central and Eastern Europe, the Former Soviet Union, and Mongolia. Fellows receive a stipend, round-trip air travel, accommodation, health insurance, language tuition, and book allowance. Applications are encouraged from lawyers, as well as faculty and advanced graduate students in all branches of law. Effective deadline for 2002-03 applications is February 15 2002.

Human Rights as Politics and Idolatry

Michael Ignatieff

Edited and with an introduction by Amy Gutmann

Michael Ignatieff draws on his extensive experience as a writer and commentator on world affairs to present a penetrating account of the successes, failures, and prospects of the human rights revolution. It is now time, he writes, for activists to embrace a more modest agenda.

This is a thoughtful and thought-provoking work, based on public lectures and written with general readers in mind.

KLUWER LAW INTERNATIONAL
WAR, DISASTER AND CRISIS IN CIVIL SOCIETIES: REACTION AND RESPONSE

Women, Armed Conflict and International Law, by Judith G. Gardam and Michelle J. Jarvis

The extent to which international law has affected the status and condition of women in armed conflict has not been adequately treated up to now. The authors look at the particular conditions of women in war and the consequences of deficiencies in international law to address the problem. Their analysis is complemented by suggestions for amelioration and a bibliography.

The Reform Process of United Nations Peace Operations: Debriefing and Lessons, edited by Nassrine Azimi and Chang Li Lin

The Brahimi Report on the successes, disappointments and future of U.N. peacekeeping operations treated the lessons learned from operations such as those in Rwanda, Somalia, Kosovo, East Timor, and the Democratic Republic of the Congo. This title grew out of a two day, closed door conference in Singapore in which scholars, diplomats and military officers discussed, expanded upon--and argued over--the Brahimi Report.

The International Aspects of Natural and Industrial Catastrophes (in English and French), edited by David D. Caron and Charles Leben Recueil des Cours--Colloques

This volume of the Colloquia from The Hague Academy is divided into four parts. An introduction treats international legal aspects of catastrophe; Part I outlines five catastrophes. Part II examines global response to catastrophe, including duties of notification and mitigation. Finally, Part III treats the aftermath of catastrophe, including State responsibility and liability.

Refugee Law in Context: The Exclusion Clause, edited by Peter J. van Krieken

This "Article 1F Handbook" examines the asylum-seeker with blood on his hands, the asylum-seeker once a terrorist or war criminal who is clearly not eligible under international law for refugee status. This book is an indispensable guide for all those involved with or concerned about asylum seekers, refugees and the upholding of the principles of refugee law.

THE JOURNALS OF KLUWER LAW INTERNATIONAL

INFORMATION, OPINION AND COMMENTARY FROM A GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

Each Kluwer Law International journal has a home page, with editorial boards, content, archiving, and print and electronic subscriptions. But, as with all Kluwer Law International products, the format is only a path to the content!

International Law FORUM du Droit International: The Journal of the International Law Association/La Revue de l'Association du Droit International
This journal covers all aspects of public and private international law with an unmatched interdisciplinary approach. Its authors include both distinguished practitioners and scholars as well as fresh, new voices in international law.
<http://www.wkap.nl/journalhome.htm/1388-9036>

Criminal Law Forum: The Official Journal of the Society for the Reform of Criminal Law
Criminal Law Forum treats of criminal law theory, practice, and reform throughout the world. This journal serves the global community of criminal law scholars and practitioners through the publication of original contributions and the dissemination of noteworthy public documents. <http://www.wkap.nl/journalhome.htm/1046-8374>

Non-State Actors and International Law
The advent of non-state actors such as intergovernmental organisations, non-governmental organisations, individuals, peoples, or transnational corporations has changed our outlook on contemporary international law. The object of this journal is to further understanding of non-state actors and their relationship inter pares, and with state actors. It examines these groups as influences on international law and as interveners before administrative tribunals and courts.
<http://www.wkap.nl/journalhome.htm/1567-7125>

Law and Practice of International Courts and Tribunals
This new journal aims to provide the reader with articles and information on the law and practice of international courts and tribunals with particular emphasis on procedural questions. The Law and Practice of International Courts and Tribunals will also offer the interpretation and application of Rules of Procedure and constitutional documents, which can be found in legal opinions, written and oral pleadings and the legal literature.

New Titles from Transnational Publishers

TERRORISM AND THE LAW

---

Edited by Yonah Alexander and Edgar H. Brenner

The internationalization and brutalization of modern terrorism makes it very clear that we have entered into an age of super and cyber terrorism with its serious implications for national, regional, and global security concerns. The legal response to this challenge is critical.

Contributors to this volume focus on a broad range of relevant topics (e.g., definitions; human rights; ethnic, racial, and religious intolerance and violence). Appendices contain selected legislation, treaties, and cases.

2001. ISBN 1-57105-243-7. Paperback/184 pages. Price: $28.50.

INTERNATIONAL TERRORISM: Multilateral Conventions (1937-2001)

Edited by M. Cherif Bassiouni

"Terrorism" has never been defined in any international convention. Its political content—particularly the fact that much of what we call "terrorism" is state-conducted or state-sponsored—has led to the restriction of the term in international criminal law to strategies of violence by individuals or small groups. Nonetheless, an extensive body of law designed to control international terror violence has come into being. MULTILATERAL CONVENTIONS includes all relevant conventions adopted since the League of Nations Convention of 1937.

2001. ISBN 1-57105-149-X. Hardcover/638 pages. Price: $145.00.

INTERNATIONAL TERRORISM: A Compilation of U.N. Documents (1972-2001)

Edited by M. Cherif Bassiouni

Vital legal instruments are gathered together for the first time in this definitive two-volume set. The only published source of all United Nations documentation since 1972 on the subject of "terrorism"—including all 180 reports and resolutions adopted since that date and up to June 2001.

2001. ISBN 1-57105-227-5. 2 volumes, hardcover/1900 pages. Price: $295.00.

ANTI-PERSONNEL MINES UNDER HUMANITARIAN LAW: A View from the Vanishing Point

Stuart Maslen

This volume considers in depth the various customary and conventional legal regimes applicable to the use of anti-personnel mines. It assesses how successfully humanitarian law—the "vanishing point" of international law—has managed to reduce the threat to civilians from anti-personnel mines, and identifies lessons for the future regulation of other conventional weaponry. All involved with the global effort to control and eliminate anti-personnel mines as well as the policy-makers who are concerned about the devastation resulting from the widespread deployment of these arbitrary weapons need to familiarize themselves with the information presented in this timely work.

Fall 2001. ISBN 1-57105-244-5. Paperback/327 pages. Price: $85.00.

Children's Rights Glossary

This Glossary is published as a companion volume to the International Children's Rights Thesaurus. It aims to provide a detailed key to the specialized terminology used in the field of children's rights, and particularly in the Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC). The Glossary concludes with a thematic listing of selected international instruments relevant to children's rights. It is hoped that the Glossary will be useful in promoting a better understanding of children's rights terminology among specialists and non-specialists alike.
