

Important New Books on the World Today

HUMAN ACTION

By Ludwig Von Mises. This great book is the counterweight to Das Kapital and countless other books advocating socialistic planning, credit expansion and similar short-cuts to earthly paradise. $13.00.

THE AMERICAN MIND

By Henry Steele Commager. The author has a passionate belief in the staying powers of democratic principles. He sees the difference between Hollywood's view of America and that of the ablest novelists. $6.50.

UNIONS AND CAPITALISM

By Charles E. Lindblom. Through their insistent upward pressure on wages, the powerful post-war trade unions attack the foundations of the competitive economy. This is a clear exposition of an enormous problem. $4.75.

THE UNITED STATES AND THE SOVIET UNION

A Report prepared for the American Friends Service Committee. "An objective study of the two countries . . . specific recommendations as to how tensions may be relieved."—The Christian-Evangelist. $1.35.

FROM EMPIRE TO COMMON- WEALTH

By Professor F. Simmons. Principles of British Imperial government. Here are statements of cardinal policy, tracing the evolution of the British Commonwealth. Selected documents, 1496-1949. $3.25.

HENRY GEORGE

Citizen of the World

By Anna George de Mille. A full-scale biography of Henry George, author of Progress and Poverty, one of the most influential books ever written by an American. $4.50.

SEEDS OF TREASON

By Ralph de Toledano and Victor Lasky. The true story of the Hiss-Chambers tragedy. The first complete account of a famous trial. The authors explain Whittaker Chambers' final break with his Soviet masters. $4.75.

THE NINE LIVES OF EUROPE

By Leo Lania. This book is the result of a recent five months' tour of Europe, and of a lifetime spent there. It shows vividly the real crisis in Europe. $5.00.

UNITED NATIONS SKETCHBOOK

By Derso and Kelen. A cartoon history of the United Nations. Derso and Kelen are the world-famous caricaturists who watch and depict the world of international and national current events. $4.00.

THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE LAW

By The Rt. Hon. Sir Henry Slesser, P.C. This book deals with the practical administration of civil law in the courts, with the development of the present civil tribunals and their probable future. $2.50.

THE STATE AND THE CITIZEN

By J. D. Mabbott. Traces the development of the idea of the state as the ultimate source of moral authority. Suggests the proper limitations to state action. $2.50.

GEOGRAPHY BEHIND POLITICS

By A. E. Moodie. The aim of political geography is an analysis of the geographical aspects of the political relationships between states and within states. $2.50.
