NWABUEZE'S MACHINERY OF JUSTICE IN NIGERIA

By B. O. NWABUEZE, LL.M.(LOND.), Barrister-at-Law; Senior Lecturer in Law in the University of Lagos; Sometime Commonwealth Scholar

There has been a considerable lack of textbooks catering for the needs of African law students and this new work by a Nigerian lawyer will undoubtedly be given a warm welcome. Giving an historical account of the Nigerian legal system from pre-colonial days to the present, the book continues by providing a penetrating analysis of the judicial system as it now stands. The laws, the Courts and the legal profession are all critically discussed and the author puts forward suggestions of his own for possible improvement in the machinery of justice.
