History of Education Society

David Angus—University of Michigan
William Eaton—Southern Illinois University
Ellen Condliffe Lagemann—Teachers College, Columbia University
Michael Perko—Loyola University
Jennings L. Wagoner, Jr.—University of Virginia, Chair

The annual meeting of the History of Education Society will be held in Chicago, October 19-21, 1984. Hosted by and held in conjunction with the Midwest History of Education Society, the convention will be located at the Americana Congress Hotel.

Proposals for papers, sessions and panel presentations are invited. Proposals should identify topic and presenters as well as provide a brief exposition (1-2 pages) of the rationale and research agenda. The program committee wishes to encourage especially the submission of session proposals, i.e., two or three papers treating aspects of a single topic. All papers will be considered for inclusion in the Proceedings of the Midwest History of Education Society.

Proposals should be submitted by March 15, 1984 to:

Books that make history:

The Transformation of Higher Learning, 1860-1930

Expansion, Diversification, Social Opening, and Professionalization in England, Germany, Russia, and the United States

Edited by Konrad J. Jarausch

Collecting original research by major figures in each respective area, this volume analyzes the transformation of higher education from a traditional to a modern system and seeks to explain the causes, patterns, and consequences of that change. Unique in its combination of controversial themes with comparative analyses of each of the four countries under question, this study establishes a new framework for future research.

Mission on the Rhine

Reeducation and Denazification in American-Occupied Germany

James F. Tent

"Tent presents an excellent account of the struggles to establish policies and schools for reeducation of US Zone Germans in occupied Germany after WW II." — Choice

Tent has drawn on a wealth of recently declassified documents to tell this story from an insider's point of view. In so doing, he sheds light on the nature of America's occupation experience as a whole — on the dilemma of balancing the need for a political purge against the need to rehabilitate a disrupted society, and on the extent to which a democratic society can impose its ideals upon another people.

Maria Montessori

A Biography

Rita Kramer

With a Foreword by Anna Freud

Teacher, physician, and feminist, Maria Montessori was one of the most important and influential educational innovators of this century. In this definitive, well-documented, and judicious portrait of the Montessori method of learning, Kramer presents a balanced and thorough appraisal of this remarkable woman and the movement she inspired.
