PUBLISHED QUARTERLY BY
EMORY UNIVERSITY

Because of difficulties which have now been overcome, publication of this issue of Central European History has been considerably delayed. Publication is now proceeding at an accelerated pace, and will soon be back on schedule.

Central European History remains eager to consider any manuscript dealing with the history of German-speaking Central Europe, regardless of approach or time period. Such manuscripts should be sent to:

Walther Rathenau and the Weimar Republic

The Politics of Reparations

DAVID FELIX Among the factors which led from the first to the second World War, the financial reparations Germany was forced to pay may have been the most crucial. Focusing on Walther Rathenau, German spokesman for fulfillment, this political-economic study demonstrates how fulfillment was to have worked and how its failure led to World War II. $9.00

German - Polish Relations, 1918 - 1933

HARALD VON RIEKHOFF Little study has been devoted to German-Polish relations of the interwar period, despite their importance to diplomatic relations among the other European states. Based on previously inaccessible source materials, this detailed examination of German-Polish diplomatic, economic, and military relations in the Weimar period is one of the most balanced and comprehensive ever published. $15.00
