

Letters to the Editor

Collections Available

The family of the late James Clay Thompson announces the availability of his library collection which includes books, articles and government documents. The books span a range of titles that include military memoirs, military history, futurist theories, American history, scientific thought, and standard political science textbooks. The documents include an assortment of Vietnam congressional reports, congressional subcommittee reports on military matters, as well as special reports available only through his contacts within the military complex.

Any institution or individual interested in receiving a complete list of titles should contact Ms. Patricia Gray at 1123 Yellowbell Place, Greensboro, NC 27410, or by phone (919) 855-8805.

A collection of The American Political Science Review is now available. The collection dates from 1958 and is missing three issues. The owner may be willing to donate it to a school which might need it.

For more information, contact: Walfred Peterson, Department of Political Science, Washington State University, Pullman, WA 99164-4880.

Moving? . . . . . Don't Forget to Notify APSA

To ensure that all your subscriptions, membership information, and mailings reach you, return this form to APSA at least one month before you move.

Name: _____

Membership Number: _____

Primary Address: _____
_____
_____
_____

Secondary Address (optional): _____
_____
_____
_____

Date new address effective: _____

Please send all APSA correspondence to my primary address.

Please send the following checked correspondence to my secondary address, all other correspondence should be sent to my primary address.

Directory

Journals

Meeting Information

Renewals/General Information

Personnel Service Newsletter

Please return to: Membership Office
American Political Science Association
1527 New Hampshire Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20036