The Children's Bureau of Australia is the only national non-government organisation with activities geared to promoting adequate and informed services for children of all ages. The Bureau seeks to foster in the community a practical concern for all children, and especially those whose lives are disrupted through breakdown in family life or other causes of disadvantage.

We initiate discussion, consultation and co-operation among voluntary and statutory child and family services organisations.

MEMBERSHIP FEE

— ORGANIZATION $60
INDIVIDUAL $25

Members receive a copy of the Bureau's quarterly Journal, Australian Child and Family Welfare and other selected publications.

PARIS CONGRESS — SPECIAL TRAVEL PACKAGE

Ansett International Travel, in conjunction with the Children's Bureau have arranged a special package for members and others who wish to attend the Fourth International Congress on Child Abuse and Neglect which is to be held in Paris from 8th — 10th September, 1982.

Ansett are holding group allotments on two travel options.

The first involves a Melbourne to Paris ticket departing 5th September and returning from London.

The second involves either a departure from Melbourne or Sydney — to New York (2 days) then to Paris (Congress duration), London (5 days), Los Angeles (3 nights), Honolulu (3 nights) and return to Melbourne.

Ansett International Travel will service individual travel needs as required by members not availing themselves of the above options which are based on Group Travel rates and benefits.

For further information or assistance kindly complete the attached form to ensure further particulars on either the group or individual travel to the Congress are forwarded to you.
