The Drums of Affliction

A Study of Religious Processes among the Ndembu of Zambia

V. W. Turner

The lives of African villagers are still today intimately influenced by religious beliefs and practices. In this study of the Ndembu of Zambia, ritual is examined under two aspects; as a regulator of social relations over time and as a system of symbols. Social life is by these two devices given direction and meaning. 12 plates 10 figures frontispiece 65/- net

The British in Northern Nigeria

Robert Heussler

This book examines the reasons for the establishment of a British protectorate over Northern Nigeria in 1900 and its political results. The author has drawn on private and official papers in England and Nigeria, and has had extensive discussions with Africans and British officials intimately involved with both the early administration and the independence period. 1 map 42/- net

The Ethiopian Royal Chronicles

Edited by Richard K. P. Pankhurst

Ethiopia is unique among African countries for its royal chronicles, which have been produced for almost a millennium. They give a valuable glimpse of the Ethiopians and their history. 12 plates 4 maps 1 text-figure paper covers 24/- net

Muslims and Chiefs in West Africa

A Study of Islam in the Middle Volta Basin in the Pre-Colonial Period

Nehemia Levtzion

'... this intensely interesting study . . . For anybody who knows Northern Ghana, the examination of Muslim influence, state by state, is fascinating.' West Africa
