

COMMITTEE ON THE ECONOMY OF CHINA MONOGRAPHS

FROM ALDINE • ATHERTON
529 South Wabash Avenue
• Chicago, Ill. 60605

A series of reference books and special studies dealing with important aspects of the contemporary Chinese economy under the Communist government, edited on behalf of the Committee on the Economy of China of the Social Science Research Council by Walter Galenson, Professor of Economics, Cornell University.

NEW books in the series include:

THE FOREIGN TRADE OF MAINLAND CHINA

Feng-hwa Mah, Institute for Comparative and Foreign Area Studies, University of Washington

A timely and thorough analysis of the substance and directions of the foreign trade of China, potentially a global trading giant. Based on a large amount of information from Chinese, Russian, and Western sources, this is the first detailed study of Chinese foreign trade from 1950 to 1969. 272 pp. $9.75.

THE MACHINE-BUILDING INDUSTRY IN COMMUNIST CHINA

Chu-Yuan Cheng, Ball State University

Despite its importance, previous research on this subject has been practically nonexistent. Analyzing both quantitative and qualitative aspects of the industry, the author has amassed a wealth of information entirely from original Chinese sources. 304 pp. $9.75.

Recent books in the series include:

AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT IN CHINA, 1363-1968

Dwight H. Perkins

The first book in English to look at long-term growth in China's traditional economic sector from an economic point of view. 528 pp. $12.50.

CHINESE ECONOMIC STATISTICS: A Handbook for Mainland China

Nai-Ruenn Chen

The first comprehensive compilation of official statistics covering every aspect of the contemporary mainland Chinese economy since 1949. 640 pp. $15.00.

THE CHINESE ECONOMY UNDER COMMUNISM

Nai-Ruenn Chen and Walter Galenson

An analysis of the broad sweep of the Chinese Communist economy from a developmental point of view. 250 pp. $7.95.

THE CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY IN COMMUNIST CHINA

Kang Chao

A detailed picture of every facet of the Chinese construction industry and its relation to economic growth from 1950 to 1965. 287 pp. $8.75.

ECONOMIC TRENDS IN COMMUNIST CHINA

Alexander Eckstein, Walter Galenson, and Ta-Chung Liu, editors

A review of the present state of Western knowledge of the Chinese economy since 1949. 757pp. $17.50.

ARABIC AND ASIA TITLES FROM PRAEGER

THE KORAN

Arabic Text with a New Translation

By Muhammad Zafrulla Khan

Quran means that which is read, recited, and rehearsed. Traditional translations of the Koran into English have been limited by their strict adherence to literal transcriptions of the peculiarities of Arabic idioms. This brilliant new translation by Muhammad Zafrulla Khan, now President of the International Court of Justice, reveals a freedom and flexibility in the translator's art. By stressing meaning rather than vocabulary and syntax, by grouping verse paragraphs rather than duplicating verse patterns, he has produced an eminently readable version of this timeless religious book. The Arabic text and English translation are printed in parallel columns, and the most up-to-date scholarship in Koranic studies has been used to ensure accuracy. This scholarly foundation, combined with imaginative yet precise use of language and structure, makes this work ideal for beginning students, experienced specialists, and general readers.

673 pp., index

$12.00

A DICTIONARY AND GLOSSARY OF THE KORAN

John Penrice. Introduction

by R. B. Serjeant

The Koran is so fundamental a part of Arabic civilization that a sound knowledge of it is a prerequisite to any understanding of Arabic history and literature. It is so complex and difficult that no other study has been attempted since the author, a distinguished Arabist of the nineteenth century, published this work. This reprint of the 1873 classic makes available once again an invaluable guide and reference for students—beginning and advanced—of the Koran.

176 pp.

$17.50

GUIDE TO EASTERN LITERATURES

Edited by David Marshall Lang

This gathering of scholarly contributions on the literatures of the Asian peoples—from A Thousand and One Nights, the Koran, and the Persian Book of Kings to the Tale of Genji, by Lady Murasaki—provides clear literary and historical perspectives on each culture, includes a bibliographical directory of key literary figures, and brings the emergent literature of smaller Asian nations into focus. A comprehensive one-volume guide—the first available in English—the book is an invaluable, enlightening reference.

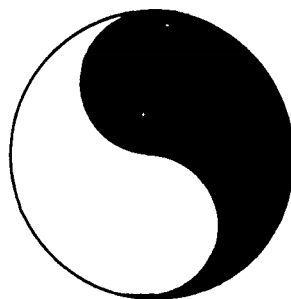

512 pp., bibliog., index

$15.00

PRAEGER PUBLISHERS

111 Fourth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10003

CHINA TITLES FROM PRAEGER

TAIWAN AND AMERICAN POLICY

The Dilemma in U.S.-China Relations

Jerome Alan Cohen, Edward Friedman, Harold C. Hinton, Allen S. Whiting

The recent thaw in Sino-American relations has helped to confuse one paramount issue: the U.S. relationship with the Republic of China on Taiwan. This book, resulting from a conference of the League of Women Voters Education Fund and the National Committee on U.S.-China Relations, probes the complex issues involved. Leading China scholars, businessmen, and representatives of public-affairs organizations debate a series of central questions such as: What are the real interests of the U.S. in China and Taiwan, and what repercussions might changes in U.S.-China policy have on relations with other countries? This compelling book is sure to fire polemics in the United Nations and out.

$7.50

UNDERSTANDING CHINA

An Assessment of American Scholarly Resources

John M. H. Lindbeck

Although the United States stands on the threshold of a new relationship with China, with dramatic prospects for contacts in every field, Asian studies in American universities face drastic cuts in federal funds. Concerned about the future of Chinese studies, the Ford Foundation, the major nonuniversity contributor to the field, commissioned Dr. John M. H. Lindbeck of Columbia University to survey scholarly resources on China. This timely report to the Ford Foundation contains his searching analysis, insights, data, and recommendations for the future development of the field. Praeger Library of Chinese Affairs.

$6.00

WARLORD POLITICS

Conflict and Coalition in the Modernization of Republican China

Lucian W. Pye

After the overthrow of the Ch'ing dynasty in 1911, China entered the first stage of its long search for a modern political system—the warlord years. By using a unique case-study technique, the author, Professor of Political Science at MIT, re-evaluates this critical period in Chinese history, which most scholars characterize as chaotic and negative. With rare perception and precision, Professor Pye analyzes the relationships among warlords, their coalitions, and their cabinets, as well as the problems they faced. His critical conclusion opens up new vistas for China-watchers. Praeger Library of Chinese Affairs.

$10.00

PRAEGER PUBLISHERS

111 Fourth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10003

Cornell
University
Press

Three well-known textbooks
to keep in mind—

Government and Politics of Southeast Asia

Second Edition

Edited by GEORGE McTURNAN KAHIN. Thailand by David Wilson, Burma by Josef Silverstein, Indonesia by Herbert Feith, Malaysia by J. Norman Parmer, Vietnam by Roy Jumper and Marjorie Weiner Normand, Laos and Cambodia by Roger M. Smith, The Philippines by David Wurfel. "This is a most welcome book for at last we have a single-volume that provides a reliable introduction to the countries of Southeast Asia, and that can be strongly recommended to the student, the general reader, and all who have a professional interest in the region."—Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science

$12.50

Text Edition $9.75

Nationalism and Revolution in Indonesia

By GEORGE McTURNAN KAHIN. "Mr. Kahin's book is without doubt an important and much-needed contribution to our knowledge of Indonesia, the background of its development, the birth of the new republic, and its progress towards independence. It is, in fact, by far the most comprehensive, exhaustive, and thorough treatise on the subject available at present in the English language."—Far Eastern Quarterly

$12.50 cloth

$3.95 paper

Major Governments of Asia

Second Edition

Edited by GEORGE McTURNAN KAHIN. China by Harold C. Hinton, Japan by Nobutaka Ike, India by Norman D. Palmer, Pakistan by Keith Callard and Richard S. Wheeler, Indonesia by George McTurnan Kahin. "Students of Asian affairs will applaud the revised and expanded second edition of this comprehensive volume on the five major governments of Asia. The contributors, each an eminent specialist in his field, have organized their material in interesting, analytical fashion. A solid, scholarly, readable account, this volume remains a leader in the field of Asian government."—Current History

$12.50

Text Edition $9.75

Cornell University Press

ITHACA AND LONDON

Cornell
University
Press

...and some timely recent titles

Viet-Nam Crisis

A Documentary History, Volume I: 1940-1956

Edited, with commentary, and annotation by ALLAN W. CAMERON. "Cameron has selected 190 documents from the 3000 he claims are available and has arranged them chronologically to show the development of the Viet-Nam War as an international incident. . . . Many are very brief extracts but major documents are presented complete . . . He supplies complete documentation and brief introduction, and his skill in selection has produced a surprisingly readable book. Though he had no access to still-secret documents, his volume is essential, for research collections today."—Library Journal $15.00

Americans and Chinese Communists, 1927-1945

A Persuading Encounter

By KENNETH E. SHEWMAKER. "A fascinating and instructive review of the once-friendly relations between some American writers, journalists, and military observers and the Chinese Communists. . . . Shewmaker . . . discusses and analyzes what he considers the sentimental and uncritical impressions and views of Vincent Sheean, Agnes Smedley and Earl Browder; the far more objective reporting of Edgar Snow; Hemingway, who was almost alone in being unimpressed; John Gunther, Brooks Atkinson, Theodore H. White, and others. A timely study."—Publishers' Weekly $10.00

Intersectoral Capital Flows in the Economic Development of Taiwan, 1895-1960

By TENG-HUI LEE. This theoretical and empirical analysis of intersectoral capital flows traces the patterns of agricultural development in Taiwan and explains the mechanism of net capital flow from the agricultural to the nonagricultural sector of the Taiwan economy. The author describes and assesses the significance of strategic measures taken by the government to implement development financing in Taiwan and speculates as to the kind of domestic development financing that might contribute to agricultural transformation in other contemporary underdeveloped countries of South and Southeast Asia. $10.50

Cornell University Press

ITHACA AND LONDON

The Rise of Modern China

By IMMANUEL C. Y. HSÜ, University of California, Santa Barbara. "Definitely an excellent, comprehensive text, showing unusual command of Chinese, Japanese, and Western scholarship on China."—CHUN-SU CHANG, University of Michigan. "A masterful work of scholarship tracing political, intellectual, social, and economic changes that have affected every phase of Chinese life from 1600 to now."—Foreign Affairs

1970 848 pp. 44 pp. illus. 14 maps trade $14.50 college $9.95

Readings in Modern Chinese History

Edited by IMMANUEL C. Y. HSÜ, University of California, Santa Barbara. A companion to The Rise of Modern China, this volume presents some 75 scholarly selections—articles, excerpts from books, documents—designed to help the reader gain a broad historical perspective and a deeper understanding of the modern transformation of China.

1971 720 pp. $7.50

Revolutionary Leaders of Modern China

Edited by CHUN-TU HSÜEH, University of Chicago. "One of the most exciting books in the field I have recently come across. It affords a good deal of material not available elsewhere. . . ."—DAN N. JACOBS, Miami University. "Through brief biography Dr. Hsüeh has given students of revolution a valuable guide to the men and ideas who took China from Empire to Communism. For those who believe personalities matter in history this is a useful book."—J. N. HAZARD, Columbia University

1971 608 pp. paper $4.95

Three Worlds of Development

THE THEORY AND PRACTICE OF INTERNATIONAL STRATIFICATION SECOND EDITION

By IRVING LOUIS HOROWITZ, Rutgers University. This revised edition places increased emphasis on the political factors of development of the three main power blocs in the modern world: the United States and its Western allies; the Soviet bloc; and the Third World of Latin America, Africa and most of Asia, including China.

Spring 1972 500 pp. cloth $12.50 paper $3.95

Readings in World History

Volume VIII: China, India, and Japan: The Middle Period

Edited by WILLIAM H. McNEILL and JEAN W. SEDLAR, both of the University of Chicago.

1971 304 pp. paper $2.50

Volume IX: Modern Asia and Africa

Edited by WILLIAM H. McNEILL, University of Chicago, and MITSUKO IRIYE.

1971 304 pp. paper $2.50

Sakhalin

A HISTORY

By JOHN J. STEPHAN, University of Hawaii. Based on Russian, Japanese and Chinese sources, this is a comprehensive history of a country sometimes called "East Asia's Alsace-Lorraine." Now an economic and strategic bastion of the U.S.S.R. in the Far East, it has a long and absorbing history. 10 photographs, 6 maps, 3 charts. $12.00

Precept and Practice

TRADITIONAL BUDDHISM IN THE RURAL HIGHLANDS OF CEYLON

By R. F. GOMBRICH. Based on textual study and field work in central Ceylon, this book examines the gap between Buddhist theory and practice and shows how these differences are unintended consequences of Buddhism's original doctrines. $13.00

Hong Kong

THE INDUSTRIAL COLONY

Edited by KEITH HOPKINS. A nineteenth-century government with nineteenth-century economic ideas has produced what is perhaps the twentieth century's greatest trading community of the underdeveloped world. The essays in this book are views from several disciplines of the rationale and implications of colonial laissez-faire. Plates, map. $13.50

Singapore's People's Action Party

ITS HISTORY, ORGANIZATION, AND LEADERSHIP

By PANG CHENG LIAN. Praised for incorruptibility and pragmatism, feared for its ruthlessness, the People's Action Party is one of the most successful in post-war Asia. This book traces its history and describes the party in terms of its financial, membership, and elitist structure. 42 tables, 2 charts. Paper, $4.75

Singapore

THE POLITICS OF SURVIVAL 1965-67

By CHAN HENG CHEE. This book studies the nature of problems confronting Singapore after her separation from Malaysia on August 9, 1965. Actions taken by the government are described and analyzed to explain major events that have taken place since 1965. (Oxford in Asia Current Affairs.) Paper, $3.75

The Indian Minority in Burma

THE RISE AND ECLIPSE OF AN IMMIGRANT COMMUNITY

By N. R. CHAKRAVARTI, foreword by HUGH TINKER. The author analyzes the economic and political conditions of Indians in Burma from 1900 to 1941, and surveys the growth of Burmese nationalism. 47 tables. (Institute of Race Relations.) $10.50

British Strategy in the Far East 1919-1939

By WM. ROGER LOUIS, University of Texas. Professor Louis examines the origins of the Pacific war. Previously inaccessible British documents reveal that problems in the Far East were identified as racial in the 1920's, and as economic in the 1930's. Text figure. $10.50

The Taiping Rebellion and the Western Powers

A COMPREHENSIVE SURVEY

By S. Y. TENG, Indiana University. The Taiping Rebellion (1851-64) weakened the Manchu dynasty and opened China to increasing Western influence. Professor Teng presents a comprehensive history of the rebellion and the Taiping institutions with emphasis on influence of the missionaries and relations with the West. 5 maps. $17.75

The Origins of British Borneo

By L. R. WRIGHT. The development of foreign policy in London is reflected in this history of Britain's progressive involvement in Borneo from 1860 to 1888. The involvement is shown to be as much the result of suspicion of French and German imperialism as it was a manifestation of Britain's own imperialist feeling. 3 plates, 3 maps. (Hong Kong University Press.) $10.25

The Manners and Customs of the Chinese of the Straits Settlements

By J. D. VAUGHAN, introduction by WILFRED BLYTHE. First published in Singapore in 1879, this work details customs of the Chinese in Malaya's British Straits Settlements. Fold-out diagram, 17 drawings, 2 text figures. (Oxford in Asia Historical Reprints.) $7.50

Papers on Malay Subjects

A SELECTION

Edited by R. J. WILKINSON, introduction by P. L. BURNS. Though sixty years have passed since the last of these papers were published, they are valuable as the first systematic history of the Malays, and because they contain much material no longer available in other sources. (Oxford in Asia Historical Reprints.) $16.75

The Gentle Anarchists

A STUDY OF THE LEADERS OF THE SARVODAYA MOVEMENT FOR NON-VIOLENT REVOLUTION IN INDIA

By GEOFFREY OSTERGAARD and MELVILLE CURRELL. The Sarvodaya Movement, inspired by the ideas of Mahatma Gandhi, is dedicated to bringing about non-violent revolution in India. This work presents a systematic account of the leaders of the movement. 37 tables. $17.75

SCIENCE AND CIVILISATION IN CHINA JOSEPH NEEDHAM

With the collaboration of WANG LING and LU GWEI-DJEN

"Rich as any galleon's cargo of spices and ivory" writes Philip Morrison in his front-page New York Times Book Review report on the newly published Volume 4, Part 3 (Civil Engineering and Nautics) of Joseph Needham's great work in progress. "Needham unfolds a spangled narrative, everywhere informed with method and purpose. . . . Readers, to the shops and the shelves!"

Vol. 1: Introductory Orientations	$15.50
Vol. 2: History of Scientific Thought	$23.50
Vol. 3: Mathematics and the Sciences of the Heavens and the Earth	$32.50
Vol. 4: Physics and Physical Technology
Part 1: Physics	$15.50
Part 2: Mechanical Engineering	$32.50
Part 3: Civil Engineering and Nautics	$55.00

Volumes 1 through 4 (Parts 1, 2, 3,) are available until the end of 1971 at the special set price of $135.00.

KŌTOKU SHŪSUI

Portrait of a Japanese Radical

F. G. NOTEHELPER

This is the first western study of Kōtoku Shūsui (1871-1911), Japan's leading left-wing thinker at the turn of the century, whose career and ideas have had a decisive influence on later radical movements both in Japan and China.

Drawing on Kōtoku's extensive diaries and correspondence, Professor Notehelfer presents a personal as well as a political biography. $16.00

THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT OF INDIA UNDER THE EAST INDIA COMPANY 1814-1858

Edited by K. N. CHAUDHURI

Discussions of the problems of India's economic development after the Charter Act of 1813, which partially ended the East India Company's exclusive commercial monopoly. The papers examine foreign trade, the local economic structure, and the influence of British rule during this important transitional period. $19.50

Cambridge University Press

32 East 57th Street, New York, N. Y. 10022

Quest Books

There are now 75 titles in this paperbound series published by The Theosophical Publishing House, Wheaton, IL 60187, of which these are a sampling:

THE PEARL OF THE ORIENT: The Message of the Bhagavad-Gita for the Western World

Geoffrey A. Barborka

191 pp, index 0025 paper $1.95

THE SCIENCE OF YOGA: A Commentary on the Yoga-Sutras of Patanjali in the Light of Modern Thought

I. K. Taimni

xiii + 448pp 0023 paper $2.25

THE PINNACLE OF INDIAN THOUGHT: Verse-by-verse translation & commentary on the Viveka-Chudamani of Shri Shankaracharya

Ernest Wood

161pp 0024 paper $1.45

THE SONG CELESTIAL: The famous poetic translation of Bhagavad-Gita

Sir Edwin Arnold

154pp 0418 paper $1

THE FIRST & LAST FREEDOM: Selections from the writings & recorded talks. Foreword by Aldous Huxley

J. Krishnamurti

228pp 0021 paper $1.75

AN ABRIDGEMENT OF THE SECRET DOCTRINE BY H. P. BLAVATSKY

Edited by Elizabeth Preston & Christmas Humphreys

xxxii + 260pp 0009 paper $2.25

THE LIGHT OF ASIA: The 1897 free-verse biography of the Buddha

Sir Edwin Arnold

154pp 0405 paper $1.25

FOOTPRINTS OF GAUTAMA THE BUDDHA: The Story of the Buddha His Disciples Knew

Marie Beuzeville Byles

227 pp, 7 photos 0399 paper $1.75

THE ESSENTIAL UNITY OF ALL RELIGIONS

Bhagavan Das

lvi + 683pp, index 0007 paper $2.75

We are sole distributor in North & South America for books published by the Adyar Library & Research Centre, Madras, India. Catalog on request.

The Theosophical Publishing House, Box 270, Wheaton, Illinois 60187

MAIL BOOK-LENDING SERVICE

ORIENTAL SECTION—NATIONAL LIBRARY
THE THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY IN AMERICA

■ SPECIALISTS are invited to use the Library's service for works in Asian studies, comparative religions, and philosophies. Reading and acquisition lists (50¢) on request. Fee $8 a year, postage additional. Address: Librarian, The Theosophical Society in America, Box 270, Wheaton, Illinois 60187. Telephone 312-668-1571. Books loaned only in the U.S.A.

Vietnam before we were there.

The first study in English of pre-colonial nineteenth century Vietnam, this is the only book anywhere in any language that compares the civil governments of two traditional East Asian societies on an institution-by-institution basis through a detailed study of the surviving statutes of both societies.

A full understanding of Vietnam requires knowledge of its political and cultural development. Specifically, the manner in which Vietnamese political and cultural institutions were influenced by those of the Chinese.

Dr. Woodside analyzes the government of Vietnam a century and a half ago and compares it with the contemporary government of China, tracing the Chinese influence in not only Vietnamese government and administration but also in society and culture down to the village level.

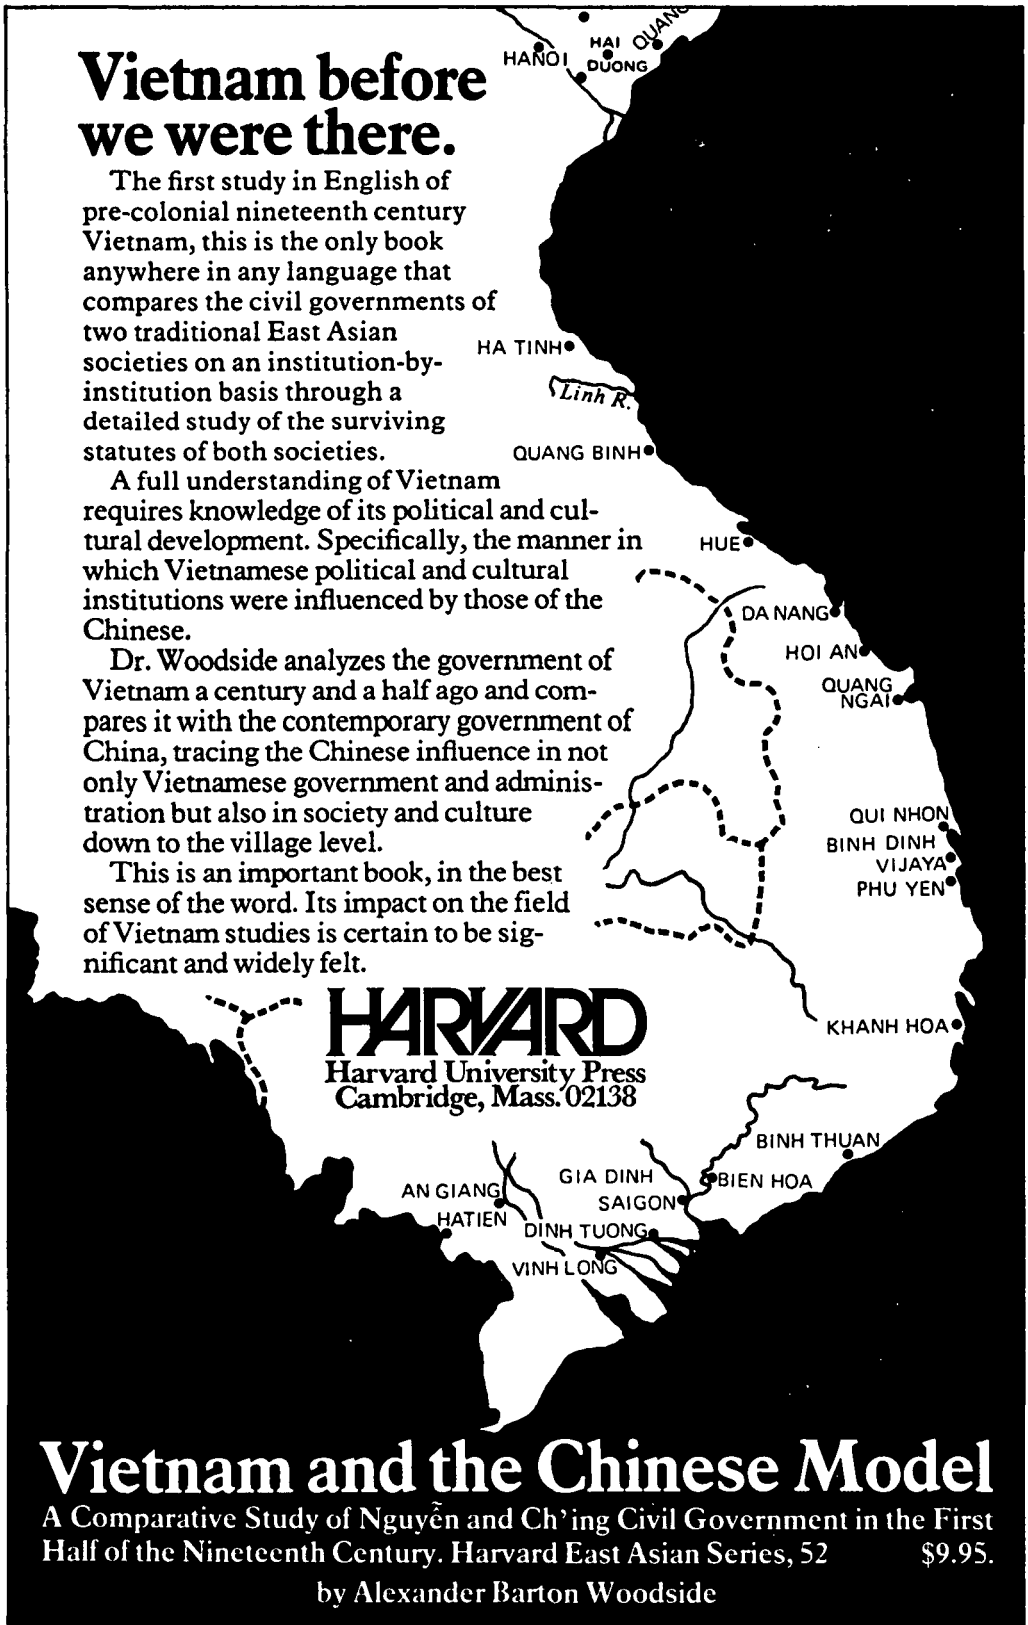

This is an important book, in the best sense of the word. Its impact on the field of Vietnam studies is certain to be significant and widely felt.

HARVARD
Harvard University Press
Cambridge, Mass. 02138

Vietnam and the Chinese Model

A Comparative Study of Nguyễn and Ch'ing Civil Government in the First Half of the Nineteenth Century. Harvard East Asian Series, 52 $9.95.

by Alexander Barton Woodside

New Asian Studies

JAPANESE AND OTHER ALTAIC LANGUAGES

Roy Andrew Miller

Employing the comparative method of the neo-grammarians, the author demonstrates the affiliation of Japanese to the other Altaic languages including Turkish, Mongol, and the Tungus languages of north-east Asia. Professor Miller explores the nature of this relationship in detail providing phonological, morphological, and lexical evidence. History and Structure of Languages series.

1971

360 pages

Cloth $17.50

VILLAGE AND BUREAUCRACY IN SOUTHERN SUNG CHINA

Brian E. McKnight

Basing his account on the Sung Hui Yao Chi Kao as well as the collected papers of Sung officials, annalistic histories, and local gazetteers, Mr. McKnight describes the legal and procedural structures of village service. This study of the metamorphosis of local administration not only throws new light on the emergence of early Chinese society in the Southern Sung era, but also provides a foundation for examining changes during the following dynasties.

1971

240 pages

Cloth $10.00

ISLAM OBSERVED

Religious Development in Morocco and Indonesia

Clifford Geertz

Mr. Geertz lays out a general framework for the comparative analysis of religion and applies it to a study of the development of a supposedly single creed, Islam, in two quite contrasting civilizations, the Indonesian and the Moroccan.

"Brilliant, forceful, with an eye for the balanced antithesis, rich in generalization, it should keep students of Asian societies and of comparative religion busy for a long time."—Raymond Firth, Journal of Asian Studies

1971

xiv, 136 pages

Paper P439 $1.95

The University of Chicago Press
5801 South Ellis Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60637

A Guided Tour through 13 Centuries of Japanese Art Treasures

This magnificent volume opens the doors of the Fogg Art Museum's display of selections from the Powers collection. As fascinating as a guided tour, the beautiful book portrays over 150 works, many in both color and black and white, and carefully details their techniques as well as their cultural and historical background. Contents include Buddhist objects of ancient times and middle ages, art related to Zen (ink painting, tea ceremony ceramics, and Zenga), the work of Kōetsu and Sōtatsu artists and craftsmen, Bunjin-ga (paintings of literary men), archaeological material, and genre themes in painting and decorative arts. 393 pages, comparative time chart, glossary, 9" x 11¼".

$25.00

A FOGG ART MUSEUM BOOK
HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS

HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS
79 Garden Street, Cambridge, Mass. 02138

Please ship me _____ copies of TRADITIONS
OF JAPANESE ART @ $25.00 each.

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____

My check is enclosed. (Please add sales tax where necessary.)

THE MAKING OF A
MODEL CITIZEN IN COMMUNIST CHINA

By Charles Ridley, Paul Godwin, and Dennis Doolin

The product of a research project for the Department of H.E.W., Model Citizen analyses the political, social, and technological values that Communist China is teaching its youth. Of special interest is the final section, which explores such conflicting values as achievement motivation and sacrifice of personal ambition for society's benefit and, in so doing, helps explain the course and violence of the Red Guard movement.

The analysis is based on grammar school texts used on the mainland, and the second half of the book is composed of translations of selections from these texts.

402 pages

$9.95

DIRECTORY OF SELECTED SCIENTIFIC
INSTITUTIONS IN MAINLAND CHINA

Prepared by the Surveys & Research Corporation

Produced with the support of the National Science Foundation

The Directory, a ground-breaking study of Communist China's scientific establishment, lists 490 selected research institutes, their structure, selected research projects and achievements, publications, chief executives, and other related data. Five indexes and a careful introduction aid the user enormously.

In a period when Communist China is achieving unexpectedly rapid scientific and technological growth and prospects for improved Sino-American relations are high, this directory is a critical reference work.

469 pages

$19.50

CHINA'S NATION-BUILDING EFFORT, 1927-1937:
THE FINANCIAL AND ECONOMIC RECORD

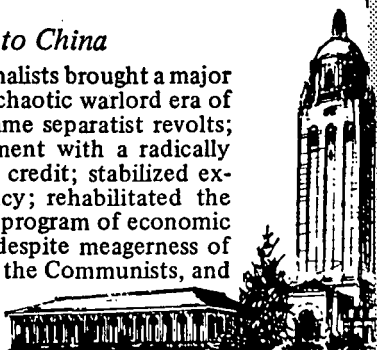

By Arthur N. Young,

Former Financial Adviser to China

This work shows that the Nationalists brought a major transformation to China after the chaotic warlord era of the twenties. They largely overcame separatist revolts; established a functioning government with a radically improved fiscal system and good credit; stabilized exchange and reformed the currency; rehabilitated the economy; and started a promising program of economic development. All this was done despite meagerness of external aid, subversive efforts of the Communists, and Japanese aggression.

553 pages

$19.50

HOOVER INSTITUTION PRESS

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, STANFORD, CALIF. 94305

now complete in three volumes

The Taiping Rebellion: History and Documents

By Franz Michael in collaboration with Chung-li Chang

When Volume I of The Taiping Rebellion appeared, Pacific Affairs acclaimed it to be "beyond any doubt the best account of the Rebellion in English, having the merits of clarity, brevity, and reliability assisted throughout with an easy readability." American Historical Review called it a "landmark."

Professor S. Y. Teng, writing in the Journal of Asian History, noted that "the book represents the labor and contribution of more than twenty scholars who have translated or reedited nearly 400 source documents, checked by Chang Chung-li and others, to be published in Volumes II and III. Having the source material prepared in advance, Professor Franz Michael serves as the master writer and editor-in-chief who has judiciously appraised a huge amount of information . . . and skilfully presented the outstanding facts and major ideas in a simple and clear style."

"When the companion volumes of documents appear," predicted the Journal of Asian Studies, "Western scholarship should have a solid basis on which to begin monographic exploration of one of history's profoundly important events."

The University of Washington Press is pleased to announce publication of the final two volumes of this monumental work. The first volume presents an analytical history of the rebellion. Volumes II and III provide the documentary substance of this history, giving the full story of the rebellion as it emerges from the rebels' own accounts. All Taiping documents so far known have been translated into English. Extensive commentaries provide the history of each document and an analysis of its contents.

"The three-volume set should be in the library of every college and university where attention is paid to the modern Far East."—Choice

The value of this three-volume work for historians and their students is enhanced by a companion volume in the Far Eastern and Russian Institute series—Vincent Y. C. Shih's The Taiping Ideology: Its Sources, Interpretations, and Influence. According to the Journal of Asian Studies, "Professor Shih's scholarship, breadth and depth of knowledge and his contribution to the study of the sources of TP ideology is the best so far published and his grasp of this subject will be hard to match in the foreseeable future."

Volume I, History: 256 pp., maps. $8.50

Volume II, Documents and Comments: 756 pp. $30.00

Volume III, Documents and Comments: 1,107 pp. $30.00

Taiping Ideology: 576 pp. $12.50

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON PRESS
Seattle and London

China and Africa, 1949-1970*The Foreign Policy of the People's Republic of ChinaBruce D. Larkin

This is a study of Chinese political and economic activities on the African continent. Mr. Larkin demonstrates that China has exercised characteristic flexibility and prudence in dealing with both the various liberation movements and the African governments which have made overtures to her.

1971 LC: 78-123624 ISBN: 0-520-01761-7 map $8.50

The Cultural Revolution in China
Thomas W. Robinson, Richard Baum, William F. Dorrill, Melvin Gurtov, and Harry Harding, Jr.

This book offers five rich case studies of central features of the Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution, one of the most significant events in the history of 20th century China. These China scholars assess the political and ideological background of the Cultural Revolution, provide detailed accounts of some aspects of its political history, and discuss its effect on Chinese foreign policy.

1971 LC: 77-129609 ISBN: 0-520-01811-7 $13.50

Struggle for Democracy*Sung Chiao-jen and the 1911 RevolutionKit Siong Liew

Because Sung's life was so closely interrelated with the 1911 Revolution, Mr. Liew's biography provides more than a portrait of a leader of that Revolution; it also presents a full account, largely based on unfamiliar sources, of the crucial period in Chinese history that was to foreshadow and introduce the Republic.

1971 LC: 74-123623 ISBN: 0-520-01760-9 $8.75

Communications and National Integration in Communist ChinaAlan P. L. Liu

Looking beyond the conventional context of "political control," Mr. Liu examines here the broader effects of official propaganda activities in Communist China, with particular reference to the mass media. This is the first study to tie together considerations of comparative politics, the relation between the mass media and the social system, and the concept of totalitarianism.

1971 LC: 79-142050 ISBN: 0-520-01882-6 $8.50

Readings in the Chinese Communist Cultural Revolution*Compiled and edited by Wen-shun Chi*

Those who wish to learn written Chinese as it is used in Communist China today will find here materials published during the Great Proletarian Revolution—official documents and articles that highlight the ideological conflict between Mao Tse-tung and his opponents. Included are explanatory sections in English, glossaries, and vocabularies.

1971 LC: 70-94988 ISBN: 0-520-01593-2 $12.00

Kin, Clan, Raja, and Rule

State-Hinterland Relations in Preindustrial India

Richard G. Fox

Mr. Fox's primary objective is to analyze the historical development of local-level political groups and their relations with state government in parts of Northern India. He focuses on the traditional relationships of localized unilineal kin bodies—Rajput "clans" and their elites—with administrative and revenue institutions at the state level.

1971 LC: 76-129614 ISBN: 0-520-01807-9 $8.00

Britain, India, and the Arabs, 1914-1921

Briton Cooper Busch

Richly detailed, this work provides a full treatment of the complex shaping and execution of British policies in the Arab world during and immediately after World War I. Professor Busch shows that the British government in India exerted important influence on the reconstruction of the Middle East following the war.

1971 LC: 71-132421 ISBN: 0-520-01821-4 $14.50

Agrarian Conditions in Northern India

Volume I: The United Provinces under British Rule, 1860-1900

Elizabeth Whitcombe

Drawing upon the rich documentation of government technical records, the author concentrates on British government in India during the period 1860-1900 and its effect on its immediate environment—the agrarian society. She focuses on the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, analyzing their agrarian history in technical detail.

1971 LC: 75-129027 ISBN: 0-520-01706-4 charts maps $10.00

Trade Unions and Politics in Ceylon

Robert N. Kearney

Ceylon supports an aggressive, rapidly growing labor movement whose organization not only performs traditional trade union functions; they are also deeply involved in politics, generally as auxiliaries or allies of one or another political party. Mr. Kearney studies their role in politics and uncovers patterns and trends of interest to students of the developing countries.

1971 LC: 76-115495 ISBN: 0-520-01713-7 $10.00

Japanese Blue Collar

The Changing Tradition

Robert E. Cole

In this analysis of the interaction between the universal aspects of the industrialization process and the culture and social structure peculiar to Japan, Mr. Cole examines the role of tradition among contemporary blue-collar workers. His observations do much to modify the popular stereotype of the Japanese worker as submissive and loyal to authority.

1971 LC: 77-107656 ISBN: 0-520-01681-5 $9.50

University of California Press • Berkeley 94720

from California

hARPER

TORCHBOOKS

WOLFGANG FRANKE

A Century of Chinese Revolution
1851-1949

"A carefully reasoned and condensed analysis of the stages by which the Chinese revolution evolved to ultimate triumph."—MALCOLM CALDWELL, New Society. "[Professor Franke] sees the century as the Chinese saw it and experienced it, writing from an extensive knowledge of the whole background. . . . His book is well-informed and shrewd in its judgments: a primer for those who want to understand what lies behind the thinking of China's leaders today."—The Times [London] Literary Supplement TB/1592 $2.50

EZRA VOGEL

Canton Under
Communism

Programs and Politics in a Provincial Capital, 1949-1968

"This book will become the outstanding example of what social scientists can do in studying Communist China from the outside. . . . [It has] more perspective, more historical and methodological subtlety, a clearer and simpler grasp of the problem, and a more manageable focus than anything that has yet appeared."—JOHN K. FAIRBANK. "Undisputably the finest work on post-'49 China produced to date by an American social scientist."
—RICHARD M. PFEFFER

TB/1629 $3.45

Harper & Row

1817 Paperback Dept. 61, 49 E. 33d St., New York, N.Y. 10016

At your bookseller

THE AGELESS CHINESE, A HISTORY, SECOND EDITION

Dun J. Li, The William Patterson State College of New Jersey

A fascinating chronicle of China from its beginnings to the present.

"This is in many respects a truly remarkable book. The author has succeeded in compressing into less than 600 pages much of what is significant in the history of China during the past four thousand years. His learning is enormous, his scholarship impeccable, and his treatment of his subject not only imaginative but also exceedingly readable."
*The Journal of Modern History

"General ignorance of Chinese history, and therefore Chinese aspirations, has been a major source of weakness in Western, and particularly American, policymaking. Reading this fascinating and informative book is one painless way of helping repair the most serious gaps in any intelligent citizen's or official's knowledge."
*The New York Times

*From reviews of the first edition, 1965.

1971. 608 pp. 30 maps. Paper. Scribners University Library. SBN 684-41333-7. $5.95
Cloth Trade Ed. $10.00

Charles Scribner's Sons

597 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10017

A SYLLABUS OF INDIAN CIVILIZATION

A SYLLABUS
OF INDIAN
CIVILIZATION

by Leonard A. Gordon and Barbara Stoler Miller

This companion volume to GENTZLER: A SYLLABUS OF CHINESE CIVILIZATION and VARLEY: A SYLLABUS OF JAPANESE CIVILIZATION will be published in the "Companions to Asian Studies" series. The work provides a guide for teachers and students of introductory courses in Indian Civilization as well as for the general reader. There are two chronological outlines: one of traditional, and one of modern history, which cover political, institutional, intellectual, and cultural history. Suggested texts and collateral readings are given and there is a list of questions for discussion. There are also a pronunciation guide, a glossary of terms, a guide to illustrative material available for classroom use, and maps.

Paper $3.25

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS

Address for orders: 136 South Broadway, Irvington, New York 10533

Ghazals of Ghalib

Versions from the Urdu by Aijaz Ahmad, W. S. Merwin, Adrienne Rich, William Stafford, David Ray, Thomas Fitzsimmons, Mark Strand, and William Hunt

AIJAZ AHMAD, editor. The Urdu poet Ghalib (1797-1869), little known to Western readers, is here presented in highly individual renderings by seven well-known American poets. In a new approach to the work of Ghalib, Aijaz Ahmad selected thirty-seven ghazals for literal translation. These versions were given to the American poets who interpreted those which interested them. The volume consists of Mr. Ahmad's introduction to Ghalib's poetry, the ghazals in Urdu, the literal versions, and poems written by the American poets in response to the ghazals.

Studies in Oriental Culture, sponsored by the Asian Literature Program of the Asia Society.

$10.00 cloth
$3.95 paper

Chinese Rhyme-Prose:

Poems in the Fu Form from the Han and Six Dynasties Periods

Translated and with an Introduction by BURTON WATSON. Following an introduction in which he discusses the development and characteristics of fu poetry, Mr. Watson provides translations, with biographical and critical materials, from the work of 12 poets. There are two appendices to the volume, one a selection of critical statements on the fu form by Pan Ku, Tso Ssu, and Liu Hsieh, and the second comprised of two fu of Hsun Ch'ing which are thought to be the earliest specimens of work bearing the designation fu.

Translations from the Oriental Classics

$6.00 cloth
$1.95 paper

The Zen Master Hakuin: Selected Writings

Translated by PHILIP YAMPOLSKY. The three translations from the Japanese presented here are: the Orategama, for the first time in its entirety; the Hebiichigo and Yabukōji, both previously unavailable in English. In the introduction, Professor Yampolsky gives a brief historical survey and appraisal of Zen in Japan.

One of the "Translations from the Oriental Classics" and Number LXXXVI in "Records of Civilization: Sources and Studies."

$10.00

Iqbal

Poet-Philosopher of Pakistan

HAFEEZ MALIK, editor. A collection of seventeen essays on Muhammad Iqbal (1877-1938), who William O. Douglas in his foreword for this book calls a "lawyer, jurist, . . . poet (and) spiritual godfather of Pakistan." There is a biography of Iqbal, discussions of his politics, his philosophy, Islamic mysticism, and of his poetry.

"Studies in Oriental Culture," No. 7.

$12.50

The Early Chiang Kai-Shek:

A Study of His Personality and Politics, 1887-1924

PICHON P. Y. LOH. This psycho-biography of the early life of Chiang Kai-Shek is based on an intensive analysis of two versions of his "diary" as well as other available sources, both in English and Chinese. Combining the Ericson theory of human development and a developmental approach to the study of transitional societies, Professor Loh seeks to make meaningful the growth of a complex man in his political environment.

Occasional Papers, The East Asian Institute, Columbia University.

$7.50

Money and Monetary Policy in Communist China

KATHARINE HUANG HSIAO. This work is the first comprehensive study of monetary economics in Communist China. Based on source materials published in the Chinese mainland, the book examines the role and structure of money and banking, the nature of monetary policy, and how well the monetary mechanism has helped to control the inflation generated by a rapid rate of economic development.

Studies of the East Asian Institute, Columbia University

$12.50

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS

Address for orders: 136 So. Broadway, Irvington, N.Y. 10533

In Canada: McGill-Queen's University Press, 3458 Redpath St., Montreal 109

SOVIET NATIONALITY PROBLEMS

EDWARD ALLWORTH, editor. This volume demonstrates the extraordinary range of nationality problems besetting the USSR, many of which have been reawakened by economic advance and unusual population increases. Several original maps give an explicitly geographical idea of the minorities problem in the Soviet Union and research sources are discussed in a bibliographical section. $9.95

REVOLUTIONARY WAR: WESTERN RESPONSE

DAVID S. SULLIVAN and MARTIN J. SATTLER, editors. An anthology of five long articles prepared for a special issue of the Journal of International Affairs devoted to the question of United States foreign policy in its relation to peasant movements and revolutionary wars in various countries. The articles focus on three major problems: the meaning of American involvement in Viet Nam, the insurgency potential of peasant movements around the world, and the nature of revolutionary war and the American response to it. $8.00, cloth
$2.25, paper

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS

Address for orders: 136 So. Broadway, Irvington, N.Y. 10533
In Canada: McGill-Queen's University Press, 3458 Redpath St., Montreal 109

The Asian Newspapers' RELUCTANT REVOLUTION

John A. Lent, editor

This first one-volume review of the origins and development of the Asian newspaper press provides a history and contemporary description of the newspaper presses of 15 Asian nations as they poise on the verge of a twentieth-century revolution in mass media. The 18 contributing authors (ten Asian and eight Western) represent the gamut of newspaper occupations, including editors, publishers, professors, press directors, and even a journalist-turned-ambassador. They report on the current state of the press in South Vietnam, Hong Kong, Korea, Taiwan, Australia, Burma, Indonesia, China, Japan, Malaysia and Singapore, the Philippines, Thailand, Ceylon, India, and Pakistan. A discussion of Asia's English-language newspapers and a comprehensive overview of Asian newspapers are also included. The focus of the volume is on the delineation of patterns of newspaper press development within specific countries.

April 1971, 396 pp., ill., cloth, #1335, $12.50

“. . . more information about the Asian Press . . . than in any other one place. . . .”—Wilbur Schramm

Iowa State University Press
128C Press Building, Ames, Iowa 50010

PACIFIC AFFAIRS

AN INTERNATIONAL REVIEW OF ASIA AND THE PACIFIC

Now in its 44th year, this authoritative journal covers the political, economic, social and diplomatic problems of Eastern and Southern Asia, with articles contributed by writers from all over the world. Each issue contains a comprehensive book review section.

Vol. XLIV No. 3.

Fall 1971

COLONIALISM, SOCIAL STRUCTURE AND NATIONALISM: THE PHILIPPINE CASE	Martin Meadows
THE GREEN REVOLUTION AND "ECONOMIC MAN": SOME LESSONS FOR COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT IN SOUTH ASIA	Harry W. Blair
THE POLITICS OF LAND: COMPARATIVE DEVELOPMENT IN TWO STATES OF MALAYASIA	Dorothy Guyot
RURAL ADMINISTRATION AND AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT IN INDONESIA	Gary Hansen Peter King
THE POLITICAL BALANCE IN SAIGON
NOTES AND COMMENT: RECENT CONSTITUTIONAL DEVELOPMENTS IN PAPUA AND NEW GUINEA	Merze Tate

Published Quarterly—$7.00 a year

University of British Columbia

Vancouver 8, Canada

A list of books in the Asian field available from the University of British Columbia Press will be sent free on request.

ROYAL ASIATIC SOCIETY OF GREAT BRITAIN
AND IRELAND
(Founded 1823)

56 Queen Anne Street, London, W1M 9LA

THE SOCIETY'S JOURNAL contains original articles on the archaeology, art, history, language, literature, beliefs and countries of the East as well as reviews of books dealing with those topics.

Applications for membership of the Society should be sent to the Secretary at the above address.

Libraries and non-members can obtain the Journal (two issues of 96 pp. annually) post-free for £4.20 p.a. (trade price £3.50) or single copies for £2.10 (trade price £1.75), payable to the Secretary in advance.

Taken by libraries in all Continents, the Journal accepts advertisements at the following rates for each insertion: for a full page £15, a half-page £8, and a quarter-page £5.

FILMS FOR ASIAN STUDIES

16mm FILMS FOR CULTURAL BACKGROUND,
GEOGRAPHY, HISTORY, AND SOCIOLOGY

CHINA

Report from China

Timely, informative documentary of life today in factories, on farm communes, in schools; excellent for study of changing social structure; 90 min. color; English narration; shown at 1971 AAS convention. Rental for classroom use $60* Sale for intramural use $995

Behind the Great Wall

Earlier, equally informative film documents the beginnings of the reorganization of society and drive for industrialization; 70 min. color; English narration. Rental for classroom use $50* Sale for intramural use $825

A Night at the Peking Opera

Chinese theatre, with music, dance, pantomime—a fascinating performance full of humor; 20 min. color; English narration. Rental $25 Sale for intramural use or local area noncommercial $275

The Delhi Way

The history of Delhi, old and new, in a remarkably sensitive, informative document. 45 min. color; English narration. Rental $45 Sale for intramural use or local area noncommercial circulation $500

The Sword and the Flute

Exquisite Indian miniature paintings evoke the whole history of the Moghul emperors. 24 min. color; English narration. Rental $30 Sale for intramural use or local area noncommercial circulation $325

*Different rentals apply to campus, public, or admission-charge showings.

film images

a division of radim films, inc.

JAPAN

The Hidden Fortress

Akira Kurosawa's vastly entertaining period drama starring the incomparable actor Toshiro Mifune; 126 min. b/w; Japanese dialogue, English subtitles. Rental for classroom use $75* Lease for intramural use $750

Snow Country

Nobel Prize for Literature laureate Yasunari Kawabata's finest novel; 133 min. b/w; Japanese dialogue, English subtitles. Rental for classroom use $60* Lease for intramural use $750

The Sound of Waves

The late Yukio Mishima's delicate novel of first love; modern literary classic; 95 min. b/w; Japanese dialogue, English subtitles. Rental for classroom use $60* Lease for intramural use $600

INDIA

The Householder

Delightful comedy of a young married couple in Delhi enduring their first year together. 100 min. b/w; English dialogue. Rental for classroom use $60* Lease for intramural use $650

Shakespeare Wallah

A modern classic of the changing social order and the fading of the old Anglo-Indian culture. 115 min. b/w; English dialogue. Rental for classroom use $60* Lease for intramural use $750

17 West 60th Street,
New York, N. Y. 10023

(212) 279-6653

JOURNAL OF SOUTHEAST ASIAN STUDIES

Editor: Png Poh-seng

Articles in Volume II No. 2 (September 1971)

Usha Mahajani	President Kennedy and U.S. Policy in Laos
D. S. Gibbons & Chan Heng Chee	Political Tutelage in Rural Singapore
A. B. Villanueva	The Philippine Congress and the Barrio Electoral Process
Astri Suhrke	Political Rituals in Developing Nations: the case of the Philippines
W. E. Cheong	The Decline of Manila as the Spanish Entrepôt in the Far East
Mohd. A. Nawawi	Punitive Colonialism: the Dutch and the Indonesian National Integration
Yeo Kim Wah	The Selangor Succession Dispute, 1933-38
Chan, Cho & Khoo	Place-names in the Sitiawan Area, Perak
Craig A. Lockard	Leadership and Power within the Chinese Community of Sarawak
C. N. Crisswell	The Origins of the Limbang Claim
Subscription rate:	S $8.50 per copy by surface mail
Editorial Address:	Department of History, University of Singapore
Subscriptions Address:	The Marketing Manager, McGraw-Hill Far Eastern Publishers (S) Ltd., Jalan Boon Lay, SINGAPORE 22.

A new MUST for your desk

A CONCORDANCE TO FIVE SYSTEMS OF TRANSCRIPTION FOR STANDARD CHINESE

compiled by Olov Bertil Anderson

It often happens that you have to use books in which the Chinese syllables are transcribed in a way that you are not quite accustomed to. Sometimes it is necessary to check some detail of the Romatzyh system, another day you may feel uncertain of something 'you really should know' about the Yale spelling, etc. In this handy little book you will find all the syllables of the Chinese language written according to Wade, Romatzyh, Pinyin, and Yale. Further you will find the compiler's own 'Simplified Wade' (SW) spelling. It is not meant to replace any other system. But in certain special cases when it is necessary to quote a great number of words with the tones this method of writing is a boon. Because of the total lack of any diacritical signs a text written in this way is as easy to print as a text in English.

Published by

Studentlitteratur ab

MAGISTRATSVÄGEN 10 • FAX • 221 01 LUND 1 • SWEDEN

S-221 01 LUND, Sweden

Sole distributor in the U.S.:

PARAGON BOOK GALLERY, Ltd

14 East 38th Street, New York, N.Y. 10016

Now in paperback

JAPAN From Prehistory to Modern Times

Delacorte World History Series

John Whitney Hall

In twenty-five short years Japan has grown from a defeated adversary into a great economic and cultural power. The dramatic events of the twentieth century which saw Japan occupied for the first time in its history and recovering with a speed and vigor which has surprised the world—all this must be seen in the light of Japan's historical growth.

This scholarly and comprehensive book covers Japan's political and cultural evolution from early times to the present, with special emphasis on political and social institutions. The story is told as much as possible from the inside out, in terms of Japan's own historical dynamics. Thirty-two pages of photographs and line maps, a chronology of Japanese history, a glossary, and a bibliography make this excellent work especially valuable to students as well as to the general reader.

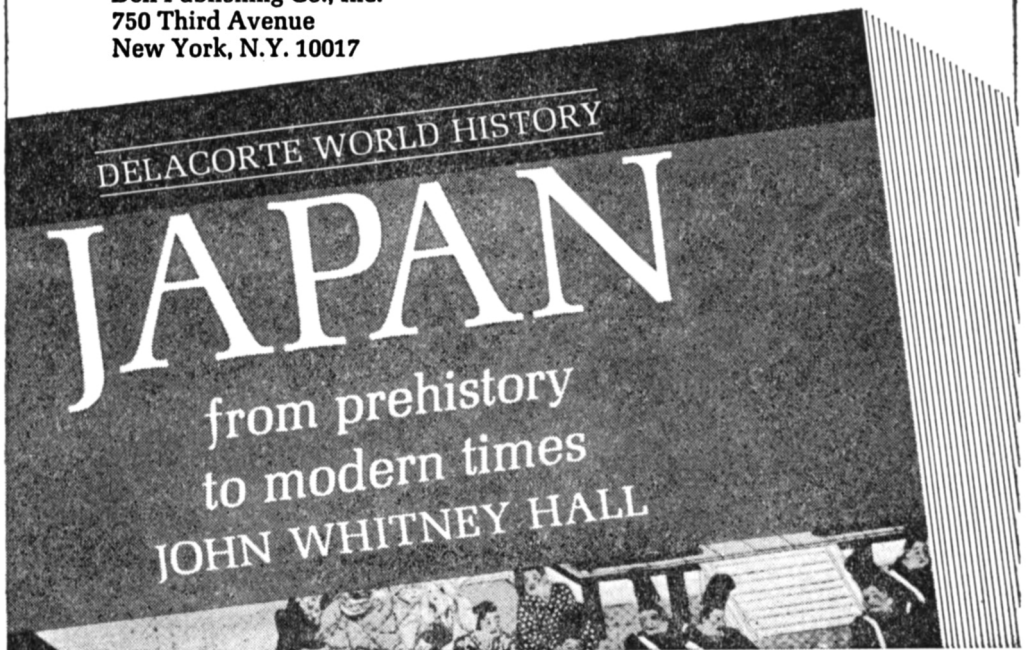

"Cogently reasoned and written in a clear and elegant style."—Library Journal

"His account of Japanese society, especially that of pre-modern periods, has a depth and authority which it is not common to find in such single-volume works."—William Beasley, School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London

"Concise, authoritative, and highly readable . . . fills a genuine need."
—Marius B. Jansen, Professor of History, Princeton University

A DELTA BOOK $2.95

Dell Publishing Co., Inc.
750 Third Avenue
New York, N.Y. 10017

THREE TIMELY BOOKS ON KOREA

BY DR. KYUNG CHO CHUNG

Critics Highly Praise

NEW BOOK

KOREA: THE THIRD REPUBLIC

In the years since the author wrote his two critically acclaimed books, KOREA TOMORROW and NEW KOREA, readers from all over the world have written to him, asking such questions as: What happened in Korea after the students' uprising and the military coup? What has the Third Republic of Korea accomplished? When will Korea be united? This new volume offers a complete study of the Third Republic government and its political development and presents the critical problem of Korean reunification that confronts the major powers and the United Nations, as well as the two Koreas.

CONTENTS

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. Korea Government Origins | 6. The National Defense |
| 2. The Third Republic | 7. Foreign Relations |
| 3. The President | 8. Political Parties |
| 4. The National Assembly | 9. Democracy in Korea |
| 5. The Judiciary | 10. Korean Unification |

288 Pages Photographs, Map $6.95

"very useful book" — EDWIN O. REISCHAUER HARVARD UNIVERSITY

NEW KOREA: New Land of Morning
Calm. 274 pp. Photographs, Map. $6.00

Contents

- Introduction
- Old Korea
- Modern Korea
 - The Korea of Syngman Rhee
 - The Korea of the Students
 - The Korea of Huh Chung
 - The Korea of John M. Chang
 - The Korea of the ROK Army
- New Korea
- Conclusion

"presents a study of Korea's problems"
—New York Times

"best single account to appear in English"
—Post Dispatch, St. Louis

"a valuable book"
—Library Journal

KOREA TOMORROW: Land of Morning
Calm. 384 pp. Photographs, Maps. $5.95.

Contents

- Introduction
- Natural and Historical Aspects
- Social and Cultural Aspects
- Economic Aspect
- Political Aspect
- A Divided Korea
- The Korean War
- Conclusion

"very useful book"
—New York Times Book Review

"well written"
—Library Journal

"a balanced and dependable picture"
—Saturday Review

鄭
慶
朝
博
士
著

The most complete, up-to-the-moment study of Korea available, the candid account represents a unified and scholarly examination of the REAL Korea, as seen through the perceptive eyes of a celebrated author, KYUNG CHO CHUNG — an enlightening commentary of the vital contemporary problems facing this divided country presented in a highly readable, unbiased form.

KOREA TOMORROW is in its fourth printing and was published in Japan as one of the best books in their overseas series, and important books have been translated into Korean, and very highly praised by many critics throughout the world.

The Macmillan Company, New York

866 THIRD AVENUE
NEW YORK 10022, U.S.A.

10 SOUTH AUDLEY STREET
LONDON W. 1, ENGLAND

Studies in Asian Genealogy

edited with an introduction by Spencer J. Palmer

家譜

In August 1969 genealogical authorities from all areas of the world met for the historic, first World Conference on Records held in Salt Lake City, Utah.

More than a score of distinguished archivists, librarians, and scholars representing a wide range of disciplines from the United States and the major countries of Asia were invited to deliver reports. The historical information had been previously unavailable to the majority of Asian scholars.

Spencer J. Palmer, coordinator of Asian Studies at Brigham Young University, in conjunction with his colleagues of the Asian Studies faculty, has now edited and compiled these papers into a book.

The book is bound by a pervasive theme: Asian genealogical records are of great and enduring scholarly importance, not only for the preservation of data but toward new insights into history, politics, society, religion, migrations, demography, eugenics, economics, and literature.

$12.50

Contributions by:

J. K. Bose

Peter Chang

Thomas W. Chinn

Wolfram Eberhard

Norio Fujiki

Charles H. Hedtke

Noburu Hiraga

Chu-chin Kang

Tsun Leng

Hsiang-iiin Lo

Joe Grant Masaoka

Ming-pi Mi

Ray A. Moore

Serafin D. Quiason

June-ho Song

Edward W. Wagner

Toshiyuki Yanase

Information and brochure available upon request.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY PRESS
Publication Sales
205-A UPB
Provo, Utah 84601

New Books from The University Press of Hawaii

The University of Hawaii Press and the East-West Center Press have recently combined into one publishing operation. The combined press will maintain a commitment to the highest standards of scholarship in the field of Asian studies.

A SOURCE BOOK OF ADVAITA VEDĀNTA

by Eliot Deutsch and J. A. B. van Buitenen

$15.00 Available December

BUDDHISM IN HAWAII: Its Impact on a Yankee Community

by Louise H. Hunter

$9.00

East-West Center Books

THE MEANINGS OF GANDHI

edited by Paul F. Power

$7.75 Available December

RICE ECONOMY: Employment and Income in Malaysia

by J. T. Purcal

$9.00

CAN LANGUAGE BE PLANNED? Sociolinguistic Theory and Practice for Developing Nations

edited by Joan Rubin and Björn H. Jernudd

$12.00

Order from your bookseller or directly from

THE UNIVERSITY PRESS OF HAWAII
535 Ward Avenue, Honolulu, Hawaii 96814