1990 also saw the resignation of our copy editor, Judith Fairley, after nearly twenty years of magnificent service, under five editors, to the difficult cause of preparing manuscripts for the press. Hers has been a crucial role in translating the intentions of authors and editors into the cold precision of print, and there can be nothing but thanks and admiration for her skill and for her unfailing cheerfulness and co-operation. We welcome Jenny Potts as the new copy editor.

Our indexer, Anneliese Emmans, has sadly been forced by ill health to step down after a much briefer tenure. Our good wishes to her for a speedy recovery and welcome to her successor, Adrian Stenton.
