Das Recht der internationalen privaten Schiedsgerichtsbarkeit

von Peter Schlosser unter Mitarbeit von Jörg Pirrung. Two volumes: Systematische Darstellung/Materialien und Register. 1975. 1445 pp. Clothbound DM 280.–

The author bases his analysis of questions which are of special practical importance or which play a key role in the understanding of the legal structure on extensive comparative legal studies. Thus the reader gains an insight into the law of arbitration of the most important western countries. The author considers the results of legal practice and theory, particularly of France, Great Britain, Switzerland and the USA, when dealing with similar problems arising under German law, even if they are not within the scope of international agreements.

Internationales Einheitsrecht

Allgemeine Lehren

von Jan Kropholler

1975. 402 pp. Clothbound DM 98.–

The first systematic presentation of the typical problems encountered in the application of international uniform law. The monograph—equipped with excellent registers—contains a wealth of important information both on the present texts of uniform law and on the organizations concerned with the unification of law. It belongs in every library of civil and commercial law, comparative law, the law of nations and European law.
