Spiritual Conferences for Religious*

Based on the Franciscan Ideal. By Rev. T. FOLEY, O.F.M. Cap. 396 pages. 37/6

During his two terms as Provincial of the Capuchin Order, Fr Foley prepared these meditations for use as monthly conferences. They are based on the Franciscan Ideal and are the product of a mind steeped in Franciscan spirituality and a heart aflame with a humble but ardent desire to keep alive the spirit of St Francis in the hearts of all religious.

Blessed Martin de Porres*

Saintly American Negro and Patron of Social Justice. By Rev. J. C. KEARNS, O.P. 224 pages. 13/-

Authentic and reliable sources have yielded the information to the scholarship of the author and he has used his material well. Remarkable and seemingly incredible incidents are related of this man who, three centuries ago, gave his entire life to the betterment of society.

Recruiting for Christ*

By Rev. G. POAGE, C.P. 201 pages. 22/6

In his work among young people throughout the country, the author has found that thousands of boys and girls are blessed by God with every qualification for the priesthood or religious life, but do nothing about it. What is needed, he argues, is the proper guidance by teachers, priests, parents, and others who can help toward the realisation of these vocations.

Truths Men Live By*

A Philosophy of Religion and Life. By Rev. J. A. O'BRIEN, Ph.D., LL.D. 441 pages. 21/-

Mankind is seeking an understanding of the great basic truths which underlie the Christian faith. Dr O'Brien here explains these truths in the light of the findings of modern research in philosophy, history, scripture and science. The book is filled with examples and stories based on the author's reading and experience.

Come with me to Mass*

By Rev. J. V. LINDEN, S.J. 123 pages. Wrapper. 3/6

This little book is written primarily for those not of the Catholic faith and it aims at making the essential meaning of the Mass as clear as possible to those outside the Church.

What Must I Do?*

Complete Information on Convent Life and What It Means to be a Sister. By SISTER MARY REILLY, O.S.B. 96 pages. 15/-

Realising that vocations may frequently be lost, simply because a likely postulant has no means of learning about the daily life and routine in a convent, the author sought in vain for some book which would give this information. Here a girl attracted to the religious life can learn, in simple language, all about the everyday life of a nun.
