FEMINISM AND TRADITION IN AESTHETICS

Edited by Peggy Zeglin Brand and Carolyn Korsmeyer

"Feminism and Tradition in Aesthetics can be recommended as state-of-the-art reading for anyone interested in how modern aesthetic thought sees itself at one of its more interesting and historically important leading edges now."

—Casey Haskins, Metaphilosophy

"Feminism and Tradition in Aesthetics is not only of interest in its own right, but is well worth considering for senior undergraduate and graduate courses—it is easy to imagine using this book as a seminar text, for example. The volume is marked by interesting argumentation and a welcome clarity of prose. I expect many of these papers will become the basis of ongoing discussions at the increasingly well-traveled intersection between feminism and aesthetics."

—Deborah Knight,
Journal of Aesthetics and Art Criticism

"This volume is a pioneering work, and of the utmost importance not for feminism alone, but for aesthetics itself. . . .

Peg Brand and Carolyn Korsmeyer are exemplary philosophers and creative aestheticians, feminist thinkers, and intellectual crusaders. They have assembled in this sparkling collection some of the most instructive texts in the contemporary philosophy of art, demonstrating that feminism is neither a restricted topic or solely of interest to a restricted audience."
