The Canadian Almanac and Directory for 1952

Edited by MARSH JEANNERET

FOR over a century the Canadian Almanac and Directory has served as the standard reference work on Canadian affairs, both domestic and foreign. During that time it has grown from a small pamphlet into its present format of over eight hundred pages. Every one of its more than fifty-thousand listings is carefully revised each year, and its accuracy and completeness have established it as the standard reference directory in offices, libraries, and institutions whenever they require information relating to Canadian matters. A brief examination of the many and important lists of names of officials, post offices, institutions, etc., in the Dominion, will indicate the vast range of information it provides.

New Books of the First Importance

NATIONALISM AND INTERNATIONALISM

By A. R. M. Lower, Queen's University. Here is the story of Canada as nation and as neighbour. The book provides the necessary background material for an adequate explanation of Canada's foreign policy. The author discusses forces which have moulded public opinion: geography, language, traditions, religious denominations; groups, pressure and otherwise. Specially valuable for groups on international affairs. Probable price, $3.00

EVERYMAN'S UNITED NATIONS

Just off the press. Third edition (revised and enlarged) of this important ready reference to the structure, functions and work of the United Nations and its related agencies. This book was first published in 1948, and has been used by teachers, students, librarians and others interested in international affairs. Excellent for study groups. Available in separate English and French editions. $1.50

RETROSPECT

The memoirs of Viscount Simon of Stackpole Elidor. Lord Simon has played such an important part in Britain's affairs during the last fifty years, that his memoirs are, in effect, an epitome of British political history since the turn of the century. Exceptional interest lies in his account of the years 1931-1935, when he was Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs. $6.00
