Editorial Policy

The purpose of the Journal is to provide a forum for creative and scholarly work in agricultural economics and related areas. Contributions on methodology and applications in business, extension, research, and teaching phases of agricultural economics are encouraged. Preference will be given to articles addressing problems and issues of concern in the southern region of the United States. Only submitted articles recommended by the Editorial Council are accepted for publication. The Editorial Council encourages constructive criticism of Journal articles and will publish accepted comments and replies.

Corrigendum:

For the July, 1991, issue of the Journal, the correct authorship citation for the article “Price Transmission in the Catfish Industry with Specific Emphasis on the Role of Processing Cooperatives,” should be James C.O. Nyankori and R.S. Pomeroy, Associate Professors in the Department of Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology, Clemson University, Clemson, SC.
