BECOMING BAMBOO

Western and Eastern Explorations of the Meaning of Life

ROBERT E. CARTER

Foreword by Ninian Smart

In Becoming Bamboo, Carter addresses values and ways of meaningful living from a broad perspective, using Japanese philosophy to augment his investigation. He examines Martin Heidegger's distinction between "dwelling" and existing in the world, Lawrence Kohlberg's "stage seven" of human moral development, and the works of Viktor Frankl, Carol Gilligan, and Nel Noddings.

"Becoming Bamboo comprises a masterful accomplishment of a dialogue [between East and West], marking out a path toward a transcultural understanding that turns on commonalities of caring for the earth as the dwelling place of mortal humankind."

FORM AND TRANSFORMATION

A Study in the Philosophy of Plotinus

FREDERIC M. SCHROEDER

Plotinus, the father of Neoplatonism, lived in Rome during the third century AD. For many scholars — not only classicists and philosophers but medievalists, renaissance specialists, Islamists, theologians, and students of religion — he remains a figure of commanding importance.

"This is certainly the best introduction to the philosophy of Plotinus in English, or perhaps in any language, which I have seen. The book has a properly contemplative element, springing from the author's and Plotinus' deep conviction that the Platonic Form is valuable and delightful in and for itself and not only as a cause or explanation."

A.H. Armstrong, Professor Emeritus, Department of Classics, Dalhousie University.

Information for Authors

Prospective authors should send their contributions, typed and double-spaced on quarto or A4 paper, to the Editor, Mr Renford Bambrough, Royal Institute of Philosophy, 14 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0AG. They should retain a second copy for the purpose of checking proofs. Articles submitted should conform to Hart's Rules for Compositors and Readers (Oxford University Press, 1967). The Editor may alter manuscripts wherever necessary to make them conform to the stylistic and bibliographical conventions of the journal. Single quotation marks should be used except where there is a quotation within another. The titles of books and journals should be underlined (i.e. to be printed in italics), as should foreign words. Titles of articles should be in single quotation marks.

Notes and references will be printed as footnotes and should be typed (double-spacing) on a separate sheet, numbered consecutively. They should be referred to in the text by superscripts. Citations should be as follows:

¹H. B. Acton, The Philosophy of Punishment (London: Macmillan, 1969), 192–198.

²R. S. Downie and Elizabeth Telfer, 'Autonomy', Philosophy 46, No. 178 (October 1971), 295.

³Op. cit. note 1, 101–112.

⁴W. C. Wimsatt, 'Some Problems with the Concept of Feedback', Boston Studies in the Philosophy of Science, VIII, R. C. Buck and R. S. Cohen (eds.) (Dordrecht: D. Reidel, 1971), 242.

The return of contributions cannot be guaranteed unless they are accompanied by stamps, or in the case of contributions from abroad, by international coupons, to cover postage. A self-addressed envelope should also be enclosed.

Only corrections of printer's errors can be allowed in proofs. Authors are therefore asked to send any alterations or additions to Mr Bambrough as soon as possible after receiving his letter of acceptance.

Authors of articles, discussion papers and review articles will receive twenty-five offprints free of charge. Additional offprints can be ordered when proofs are returned by arrangement with the Institute.

Books for review should be sent to the Editor at the Institute and not to Cambridge University Press. Publishers are asked to note that non-philosophical works are not reviewed in Philosophy.

Authors' corrected proofs should be sent to Mr Bambrough at St John's College, Cambridge. All other correspondence should be addressed to the Institute and not to any address in Cambridge.
