

Cynthia Tucker to Deliver the Mary Lepper Lecture

The Women's Caucus has announced that the speaker for the Mary Lepper Lecture, an annual event at the annual meeting open to APSA members, will be Cynthia Tucker, associate editor of the Atlanta Constitution. Ms. Tucker, presently a Nieman Fellow at Harvard University, writes widely on the role of blacks and women in American politics. She will speak on "The Growing Income Gap: A Threat to the American Ideal of Equal Opportunity" at 5:30 p.m., Thursday, August 31.

Computer Users Section Begins Newsletter

The Computer User's Section of APSA has published their first newsletter. Persons interested in obtaining copies may write to the editor, Michael L. Vasu, Social Science Research and Instructional Computing Lab, School of Humanities and Social Sciences, North Carolina State University, Box 8101, Raleigh, NC 27695-8101.

Have You Been a Member As Long As . . . ?

Jean Walen

American Political Science Association

Over 1300 current and active members of the Association have been continuous members of the Association for 25 years or longer. Clarence Berdahl, who was 99 in June, has been a member for 72 years and two of our living ex-presidents, E. Pendleton Herring and R. Taylor Cole, have been members for 62 years.

The Association will welcome any corrections in the following listing if our records are inaccurate.
