TEL

TRANSNATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL LAW

Transnational Environmental Law (TEL) is a peer-reviewed journal that will be launched by Cambridge University Press in 2012. TEL is dedicated to the study of environmental law and governance beyond the state. It approaches legal and regulatory developments with an interest in the contribution of non-state actors and an awareness of the multi-level governance context in which contemporary environmental law unfolds.

TEL warmly invites new work on topics within the scope of the journal from scholars, lawyers and professionals active in fields related to environmental law and governance.

International & Comparative Law Quarterly

Published for the British Institute of International and Comparative Law (BIICL)

Editors

Malcolm Evans, University of Bristol, UK

Robert McCorquodale, British Institute of International and Comparative Law, UK

International & Comparative Law Quarterly (ICLQ) publishes papers on public and private international law and also comparative law. It has maintained its pre-eminence as one of the earliest and most important journals of its kind, encompassing human rights and European law. The journal encourages innovative and original articles that explore the interconnectedness between the legal subject areas, moving across the boundaries that divide the law in a way that provides vital analysis at a time when formal distinctions, in scholarship and between jurisdictions, are becoming less relevant. The ICLQ attracts scholarship of the highest standard from around the world, which contributes to the maintenance of its truly international frame of reference. The 'Shorter Articles, Comments, and Notes' and 'Current Developments' sections particularly enable the discussion of highly topical legal issues.

Leiden Journal of International Law

Published for The Foundation of the Leiden Journal of International Law

Editors-in-Chief

Carsten Stahn, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Eric de Brabandere, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Firmly established as one of Europe's leading journals in the field, the Leiden Journal of International Law (LJIL) provides a forum for two vital areas, namely international legal theory and international dispute settlement. It is unique in providing the most comprehensive coverage of the world's most important international tribunals in The Hague (such as the ICJ, ICTY, ICC and others) and elsewhere, as well as examining new trends in international legal thinking. LJIL is essential reading for academics and practitioners who need to stay abreast of recent developments in these areas.

Netherlands International Law Review

Marketed and distributed for T.M.C. Asser Press

Editor-in-Chief

P. Vlas, Free University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands

The Netherlands International Law Review (NILR) addresses relevant topics and recent trends in international law and the conflict of laws, including their comparative legal aspects. Articles are combined with English-language reports on topical Dutch judicial decisions, surveys of the case law on the topic of civil jurisdiction and enforcement of judgments in Europe, an update on the current developments regarding The Hague's international tribunals, an overview of the Hague Conventions on Private International Law, book reviews, and occasionally, a short commentary on case law or legislation. The journal serves as a reliable source of information for scholars and practitioners and anyone who wants to stay up-to-date with the most important developments in these fields.

Please note a subscription includes an annual volume of the Netherlands Yearbook of International Law (NYIL)

Hague Journal on the Rule of Law

Marketed and distributed for T.M.C. Asser Press

Editors-in-Chief

Julio Faundez, Warwick University, UK

Randy Peerenboom, La Trobe University Melbourne, Australia, and Associate Fellow Oxford University Centre for Socio-Legal Studies, UK

This exciting new journal provides a timely forum for the rapidly-expanding field of the rule of law, encapsulating cutting-edge study from all related disciplines.

This unique centre for the exchange of views between academics and practitioners gives focus to the promotion of the rule of law on both the national and international stage.

The journal aims to deepen and broaden the knowledge of the rule of law and its relation to economic growth, poverty reduction, promotion of democracy, protection of human rights and geopolitical stability. The journal invites and will publish academic articles, practitioner reports and commentary, book reviews and special volumes on major developments and themes in the rule of law field.

ASIAN JOURNAL OF LAW AND SOCIETY

Editors-in-Chief

Professor Setsuo Miyazawa, Aoyama Gakuin University, Japan

Professor David Engel, State University of New York, USA

Professor Tom Ginsburg, University of Chicago, USA

Professor Weidong Ji, Shanghai Jiao Tong University, China

Professor Jan-Michiel Otto, Leiden University, Netherlands

The Asian Journal of Law and Society adds an increasingly important Asian perspective to global law and society scholarship. This independent, peer-reviewed publication encourages empirical and multi-disciplinary research and welcomes articles on law and its relationship with society in Asia, articles bringing an Asian perspective to socio-legal issues of global concern, and articles using Asia as a starting point for a comparative exploration of law and society topics. Its coverage of Asia is broad and stretches from East Asia, South Asia and South East Asia to Central Asia.

INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The Israel Law Review welcomes unsolicited articles and book reviews. For detailed submission instructions, see <http://journals.cambridge.org/isr/ifc>

To be considered for publication and submitted to the review procedure, submissions should be within the scope of the Journal, as described on the inside front cover. Consideration will normally be given only to original material that has not previously been published. In exceptional cases material that is currently under review elsewhere will be considered. Authors are asked to indicate clearly with their submission if this is the case.

Submissions should be written in good English and so authors are encouraged to have their contributions edited for language prior to submission, where necessary.

Article submissions should contribute specifically to scholarly discussions in the fields of human rights, public law and/or international law, and normally be in the range of 8,000 to 15,000 words (including footnotes), although longer submissions may be accepted.

The Israel Law Review welcomes reviews of books covering the Journal's areas of focus. Book reviews are subject to the standard review procedure. Books are not sent to unsolicited reviewers.

Submissions should be prepared in editable electronic word-processing format (MS Word) and emailed to: Dr. Yaël Ronen, Academic Editor, ilr@savion.huji.ac.il
