

Instructions for Authors

Aims and Scope

The purpose of the Canadian Journal of Philosophy is the publication of international philosophical work of high quality, in English or French, in any field of philosophy. All submissions are given blind editorial review. As many submissions as possible are sent to external referees, with a response to authors within six months of submission. When submissions are not sent for external refereeing, RCJP endeavours to respond to authors within three months.

Preparing and submitting your manuscript

Before preparing your submission, please visit the Canadian Journal of Philosophy homepage at <http://www.tandfonline.com/rcjp> for full instructions for authors.

Papers for consideration should be submitted to the Editorial Assistant, Jason Poettcker, at: cjp@philosophy.ryerson.ca. Authors are encouraged to submit manuscripts electronically. Electronic submissions should be sent as email attachments using a standard program such as MS Word.

The CJP will normally not consider manuscripts exceeding 10,000 words, including notes. Manuscripts should be prepared for blind review, which means they should contain no self-identifying references in either text or footnotes. An abstract of 150 to 250 words should also be included.

Editorial Office

Canadian Journal of Philosophy
Department of Philosophy
Ryerson University
350 Victoria Street
Toronto, ON M5B 2K3
Canada
cjp@philosophy.ryerson.ca

Please make sure that your contact details are clearly visible on the outside of all packages you send to the Editorial Office.

Submitted manuscripts are subject to peer review at the discretion of the Editorial Office. In order to maintain anonymity during any refereeing process, authors are requested to refrain from, or keep to a minimum, self-referencing.

There are no page charges in Canadian Journal of Philosophy.

Copyright

It is a condition of publication that all contributing authors grant to Canadian Journal of Philosophy the necessary rights to the copyright in all articles submitted to the Journal. Authors are required to sign an Article Publishing Agreement to facilitate this. This will ensure the widest dissemination and protection against copyright infringement of articles. The "article" is defined as comprising the final, definitive, and citable Version of Scholarly Record, and includes: ( a ) the accepted manuscript in its final and revised form, including the text, abstract, and all accompanying tables, illustrations, data; and ( b ) any supplementary material. Copyright policy is explained in detail at <http://journalauthors.tandf.co.uk/preparation/copyright.asp>.

Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.

Free article access

As corresponding author, you will receive free access to your article on Taylor & Francis Online. You will be given access to the My authored works section of Taylor & Francis Online, which shows you all your published articles. You can easily view, read, and download your published articles from there. In addition, if someone has cited your article, you will be able to see this information. We are committed to promoting and increasing the visibility of your article and have provided this guidance < <http://journalauthors.tandf.co.uk/beyondpublication/promotearticle.asp> > on how you can help.

Reprints and journal copies

Corresponding authors can receive a complimentary copy of the issue containing their article. Article reprints can be ordered through Rightslink® when you receive your proofs. If you have any queries about reprints, please contact the Taylor & Francis Author Services team at reprints@tandf.co.uk. To order extra copies of the issue containing your article, please contact our Customer Services team at adhoc@tandf.co.uk.
