A NOTE TO OUR READERS:

Even though our initial plans were to publish two issues every year, so far we have been able to publish only one per year or a total of four since 1987, including the present issue.

While publishing two issues per year continues to be our goal for the future, we have decided, under the circumstances, to change the way we number our issues. We label the present issue as No. 4, Fall 1990. Our next issue will be labelled No. 5 when it is published in 1991.

Our subscription rates will continue to be $10.00 for individuals and $20.00 for libraries for any two consecutive issues.

With our best wishes until Issue No. 5,

The Editorial Board
