

Contents

Cross-Cultural Art History in a Polycentered World

Guest Editor: Jaynie Anderson

Introduction Jaynie Anderson	3
Articles
Western Desert Iconography: Rock art mythological narratives and graphic vocabularies Jo McDonald and Peter Veth	7
Joining the dots: Analysing the sustainability of the Australian Aboriginal art market Meaghan Wilson-Anastasios	22
Make the Stones Shout: Contemporary museums and the challenge of culture Christopher R. Marshall	35
Art History and Translation Iain Boyd Whyte and Claudia Heide	45
The image of the megalopolis – understanding the complex visual construction of Mexico City Peter Krieger	55
Visual Culture of the Indian Ocean: India in a polycentric world Frederick M. Asher	67
Art History in China LaoZhu (Zhu Qingsheng)	85
Other Views: Art History in (South) Africa and the Global South Federico Freschi	93

Art History in the Cinema Age Thierry Dufrêne	102
Paradigms of the Beholder. The Perception of Art in a Global Age: Over Here – Over There Peter J. Schneemann	112
Portraying The Ptujška Gora Pilgrims Marjeta Ciglencečki	121
The Presence of Cross-Cultural Pasts in the Art History of Central Europe Pál Lővei	139
The Challenge of the Object – the CIHA Congress 2012 in Nuremberg G. Ulrich Grossmann	154
Notes on Contributors	167
Abstracts	170