The objects of the Society are the furtherance of classical studies in general, and in particular the discussion and publication of critical researches into the languages, literature and civilization of Greece and of Rome.

Any classical scholar is eligible for membership. The subscription of a member resident in Cambridge is £4.00 annually, except that the subscription of a resident research student is £2.50. The subscription of a member resident elsewhere is £2.50 annually. Members receive notices of all meetings of the Society and copies of the Proceedings.

Any library may subscribe to the Society and receive copies of the Proceedings. The subscription for libraries is £5.00 per annum.

The Society is responsible for two series of publications.

Proceedings of the Cambridge Philological Society, containing papers read to the Society and other articles by members, appears annually. Contributions intended for the Proceedings should be addressed to Professor E. J. Kenney, Peterhouse, Cambridge CB2 1RD.

Supplements to the Proceedings, consisting of monographs, are an occasional series appearing less frequently and at irregular intervals. This series is designed to accommodate works of intermediate size, i.e. of about 150 pages. Members of the Society are invited to submit proposals for monographs to be published in this series; proposals should be addressed to Dr. C. Austin, Trinity Hall, Cambridge CB2 1TJ.

Applications for membership, and all other correspondence relating to the Society, should be addressed to Dr. Austin.
