

Mollie Painter-Moreland

Editor-in-Chief

The Business and Professional Ethics Journal is a peer-reviewed forum for interdisciplinary research that explores the systemic causes of ethical challenges in business and professional life. The journal provides an outlet for papers that make significant contributions to the development of alternative theories and practices within business and professional ethics, and that examine why global ethical issues, such as poverty alleviation and sustainability, emerge and persist. Established in 1981, the journal is published by the Philosophy Documentation Center in cooperation with the Institute for Business and Professional Ethics at DePaul University.

Please see the BEQ website for additional important information for contributors.

Manuscripts will be reviewed initially by one of the editors for style, format, topical appropriateness vis-à-vis business ethics, and scholarly (as opposed to journalistic) orientation. Manuscripts that pass this initial review will then be double-blind reviewed by at least two reviewers. Every attempt will be made to notify authors of the status of their manuscripts within three months of submission.

Authors should provide an abstract for each article (maximum of 150 words).

Authors will receive proofs for the correction of typographical errors and minor changes prior to publication. Shortly after publication of a manuscript, the author will receive a complimentary copy of that issue of BEQ.
