A New Testament History

THE STORY OF THE EMERGING CHURCH

By FLOYD V. FILSON. This companion volume to John Bright's popular History of Israel places the New Testament in its historical setting, covering the background of Judaism and non-Jewish religions and governments. It tells where, when, and why each book was composed, and gives its literary features. $7.50

Redemption and Historical Reality

By ISAAC C. ROTTENBERG. A survey of Protestant, Roman Catholic, Anglican, and Orthodox views on the manner in which God acts in and through history. $6.00

A new volume in
*Westminster Studies in Christian Communication

The Meaning of Christian Values Today

By WILLIAM L. BRADLEY. After defining the basic ethical principles of Christianity, Dr. Bradley shows how the church can communicate them to a largely skeptical public by first enlisting the aid of public leaders. $4.50

A new volume in The Old Testament Library
*The Method and Message of Jewish Apocalyptic

By D. S. RUSSELL. From Daniel to the Dead Sea Scrolls, the Jewish apocalyptic writings are carefully examined, their differences and similarities made clear, and their influence traced in later Judaism and Christianity. $7.50

The Political Thought of Pierre d'Ailly

THE VOLUNTARIST TRADITION

by Francis Oakley

An eminent nominalist theologian, d'Ailly was one of the group of ecclesiastical statesmen who engineered the termination of the Great Schism. His political thought is of particular interest because it reflects both his attempts to solve the urgent ecclesiastico-political problems of the times as well as the theological voluntarism characteristic of the Ockhamist school.

New Perspective on Reformation History

by Jaroslav
Pelikan

OBEDIENT REBELS

*Catholic Substance and Protestant Principle
in Luther's Reformation*

BASED ON the seeming paradox in Luther's thought, this path-breaking new study by America's foremost Luther scholar is "a serious piece of historical research into the Reformation understanding of the church, and a genuine contribution to the contemporary Protestant-Catholic dialogue. Its value is that it successfully interrelates these two concerns." -- ROBERT MC AFEE BROWN
