NEW STUDIES IN RELIGION FROM FORTRESS

ENCOUNTERING MARX

Bonds and Barriers Between Christians and Marxists

JAN MILIČ LOCHMAN

Internationally known Czech theologian, Jan Lochman, introduces readers to the recently published writings of the young Karl Marx, which possess an impact not yet felt by Christians. Lochman rekindles the Marxist-Christian dialogue. $4.25 Paperbound

MISSION IN A NEW WORLD

EDGAR R. TREXLER

Edgar Trexler—writing for the laity—contrasts the negative parochialism of much of traditional Christianity with the rich dimensions of its root sense of mission. He contrasts the partner vs. the paternal approach and examines the future of the church in a world of rapid change. $2.95 Paperbound

THE FLAMING CENTER

A Theology of Christian Mission

CARL E. BRAATEN

This incisive and lively work of theology breathes fresh life into the foundations of the theology of mission. Braaten situates the role of the Christian gospel today in the context of the crises of traditional faith, rapid political and social change, and the revival of world religions. $9.95

THE NATURE OF A HUMANE SOCIETY

H. OBER HESS, editor

Seven noted observers of contemporary American values explore the ingredients of a humane society: the lessons of history, social welfare, law, ethics and scientific investigation, racial harmony, equality, and the meaning of life. Seven religious thinkers comment and offer illuminating responses. $9.50

PSYCHOHISTORY AND RELIGION

The Case of Young Man Luther

ROGER A. JOHNSON, editor

Designed as a critical companion volume to Erik Erikson's pioneering Young Man Luther, PSYCHOHISTORY AND RELIGION explores the significance, neglected until now, of Erikson's work for religious studies. This seminal book will contribute substantially to the growing dialogue between religion and psychology. $10.95
