A NEW JOURNAL

Law and Philosophy

An International Journal for Jurisprudence and Legal Philosophy

Edited by
ALAN MABE

Associate Professor and Chair, Department of Philosophy, The Florida State University, Tallahassee, U.S.A.

Law and Philosophy will be a forum for work in philosophy and law which is of common interest to members of the two disciplines. It will be open to all approaches in both fields and to work in any of the major legal traditions - common law, civil law, or the socialist tradition. The editors encourage papers which exhibit philosophical reflection on the law informed by a knowledge of the law, and legal analysis informed by philosophical methods and principles.

A distinguished editorial board has been carefully chosen and its composition reflects a concern for balance between legal and philosophical perspectives. While each issue will be comprised mainly of articles of a substantial nature, notes and discussions will also be accommodated. Two regular features will be an extended review section and a book note section. Recent important works in jurisprudence and legal philosophy will be treated to an extended review. The book note section will contain annotated bibliographical material on relevant publications.

Contents of Vol. 1 No. 1 (February 1982)

Character, Purpose and Criminal Responsibility: Michael D. Bayles.
Understanding Judicial Discretion: Barry Hoffmaster. Toward a Theory of Punishment: Alan H. Goldman. Sentencing: Must Justice be Even-Handed?: Michael Davis. Foundation and Safeguard of Human Rights: Ch. Perelman. Illegal Behaviour: Richard Foley. Book Review. Review of Literature.

SUBMISSION OF ARTICLES

The Editors encourage the submission of manuscripts on a wide range of medicolegal topics for publication in the JOURNAL. Acceptable subjects include health law and policy; legal, ethical, social, and economic aspects of medical practice, education, and research; health-related insurance; and other important or interesting subjects involving the relationship of the life sciences to the social sciences and humanities. The JOURNAL is interdisciplinary. Contributions from specialists in a variety of disciplines are welcomed. All materials should be sent to the Editor-in-Chief, American Journal of Law & Medicine, Editorial Offices, 765 Commonwealth Avenue, 16th Floor, Boston, Massachusetts 02215.

POLICY ON MULTIPLE SUBMISSION: The Editor-in-Chief receives manuscripts in the understanding that they have not simultaneously been submitted elsewhere for consideration for publication.

GENERAL FORM: Manuscripts should be typewritten on one side of the paper only, with triple spacing and liberal margins. Manuscripts should be submitted in triplicate, i.e., an original and two carbon or Xerox copies. The title of the paper and the author's name and address should be given on a covering sheet.

ABSTRACT: A short abstract (normally not exceeding 200 words) succinctly summarizing the content of the manuscript should accompany the manuscript on a separate sheet. If the paper is accepted, the abstract will be published along with the manuscript.

REFERENCES: Footnotes to sources should be numbered consecutively, and placed on triple spaced pages at the end of the text. All footnotes should conform to A Uniform System of Citation (12th ed.), published and distributed by the Harvard Law Review Association, Gannett House, Cambridge, Massachusetts 02138. Non-lawyers unfamiliar with this system should follow the citation form accepted in their field and the Editors of the JOURNAL will make the appropriate modifications if the paper is published.

ILLUSTRATIONS: Illustrations and tables accompanying manuscripts should be numbered, provided with suitable legends, and marked lightly on the back with the author's name. Authors should indicate on the manuscript the appropriate positions of tables and text figures. Special arrangements must be made with the Editor-in-Chief for color plates, elaborate tables, half-tone illustrations or extra illustrations, drawings, and photographs.

PUBLICATION LANGUAGE: English.

SELECTION AND EDITING TIMETABLE: Receipt of manuscript will be acknowledged within one week of receipt. Authors will be notified of the manuscript's acceptance or rejection within one to three months, and accepted manuscripts will be published within three to eight months of acceptance.

PROOFS AND AUTHOR OFFPRINTS: Because of time pressures, printer's proofs of articles accepted for publication will not be made available to authors. Twenty-five offprints of each article, enclosed in JOURNAL covers, will be distributed to the author or divided among the authors if there is more than one. Orders for additional offprints, for which a fee is charged, must be communicated at least one month prior to publication.

RETURN OF MANUSCRIPTS: Upon request of the author and upon receipt of a suitable envelope stamped with adequate postage, the Editor-in-Chief will return to the author the original of any manuscript not accepted for publication.
