Manuscripts

The China Quarterly welcomes the submission of manuscripts from all scholars, including research students, on all aspects of contemporary China and from all points of view, including those which deal with Taiwan and Overseas Chinese. Articles on China prior to 1949 are also welcome, particularly, but not exclusively, when these relate directly to contemporary China or to the history of the Chinese Communist Party. Articles should be submitted, in triplicate, to the editorial office. They should be typed in double spacing and, preferably, conform to the styling of The China Quarterly.

The China Quarterly is published by the Contemporary China Institute of the School of Oriental and African Studies, London University. The views expressed in articles are those of individual authors and do not necessarily represent the views of the Contemporary China Institute.

THE GATE OF HEAVENLY PEACE

The Chinese and
Their Revolution
1895-1980

Jonathan D. Spence

'A fascinating new book.'
Jonathan Mirsky, The Observer

'Professor Spence has a special mission: to bring the individual back into Chinese history. In this he brilliantly succeeds.'
John Vincent, The Sunday Times

'This is a book that brings China to life better than almost any other written about China since 1949.'
Richard Harris, The Times

'A fascinatingly unconventional picture. Professor Spence has written an ambitiously complex and haunting book.'
Christopher Booker, The Sunday Telegraph

'Jonathan Spence has succeeded to make a statement about the nature of revolution as the Chinese have known it, in a language so lucid that at last we can begin to comprehend it.'
Ronald Blythe, The Listener

'The best attempt so far to explain the intricacies of a society only now beginning to surrender some of its most absorbing secrets.'
James Cameron, The Spectator
