THE HENRY BARNARD PRIZE: This prize of $250 is awarded biennially to the best essay in the history of education by a graduate student. The award is named for Henry Barnard (1811-1900), the first United States Commissioner of Education (1867-1870) and the editor of the American Journal of Education (1855-1881). The next award will be presented at the fall 1987 meeting of the History of Education Society. The recipient will receive an invitation from the Society to deliver the prize essay at its 1987 meeting and will have the essay published in the History of Education Quarterly. Deadline for submission: May 1, 1987.

THE HISTORY OF EDUCATION SOCIETY AWARD: This award of $250 will be made biennially to the best essay in the history of education published in any journal over the previous two years. The next award will be presented at the fall 1988 meeting of the History of Education Society. Any article published in 1986 or 1987 will be eligible for the award. Deadline for nominations: May 1, 1988.

The Society reserves the right not to make awards in years when the Prize Committee judges all entries to be of insufficient quality.

Inquiries regarding these awards should be directed to the chairperson of the Prize Committee: Ellen Condliffe Lagemann, Box 129, Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, NY 10027.
