PMLA (ISSN 0030-8129) is published five times a year, in January, March, May, October, and November, by the Modern Language Association of America. Membership in the association is open to persons who are professionally interested in the modern languages and literatures. Annual (calendar-year) dues, which include subscription to PMLA, are $20 for graduate student members (up to a maximum of seven years) and are based on income for regular members: income under $15,000, $25; income $15,000–$20,000, $40; income $20,000–$30,000, $50; income $30,000–$40,000, $70; income $40,000–$50,000, $85; income $50,000–$60,000, $100; income $60,000–$70,000, $115; income $70,000–$80,000, $130; income $80,000–$100,000, $145; income $100,000–$120,000, $165; income $120,000–$140,000, $185; income $140,000–$160,000, $205; income $160,000–$180,000, $230; income $180,000–$200,000, $255; income over $200,000, $280. Joint membership, which provides one copy of the January, March, May, and October issues of PMLA but two copies of all other publications, is available to two individuals sharing the same household. The dues for a joint membership are $40 above the dues that would be paid by the higher-income member alone. Foreign members pay the same as regular members (use the American-dollar equivalent to ascertain the dues category). Membership applications are available on request and at the MLA Web site (www.mla.org).

For libraries and other institutions, a subscription in 2011 to the electronic format of PMLA alone is $180 and to the print and electronic formats is $200 (domestic and Canadian) or $225 (foreign). Subscriptions include the annual volume of Profession, the MLA's journal of opinion about the modern language profession, in the same medium or media as PMLA. They also include online access to the 2002–10 volumes of both journals. For an additional $170, institutional subscribers receive a cloth-bound edition of the 2011 volume of PMLA. Agents deduct four percent as their fee. Claims for undelivered issues will be honored if they are received within six months of the publication date; thereafter the single-issue price will be charged. To order an institutional subscription, call or write the Member and Customer Services Office of the association (646 576-5166; subscrip@mla.org).

Single copies of the January, March, May, and October issues can be purchased for $12 each; the November (Program) issue is $35. Issues for the current year and the previous one are available at the MLA Bookstore (www.mla.org/store/CID70) and from the Member and Customer Services Office of the association (646 576-5161; bookorders@mla.org).

An online archive of PMLA issues from 1884 to 2005 is available through JSTOR (www.jstor.org). Volumes up to 2000 can be obtained on microfilm from NA Publishing, Inc., 4750 Venture Drive, Suite 400, PO Box 998, Ann Arbor, MI 48106-0998 (800 420-6272; www.napubco.com/umi.html).

The office of publication and editorial offices are located at 26 Broadway, 3rd floor, New York, NY 10004-1789 (646 576-5000; pmlasubmissions@mla.org).

All communications concerning membership, including change-of-address notifications, should be sent to the Member and Customer Services Office, MLA, 26 Broadway, 3rd floor, New York, NY 10004-1789 (646 576-5151; membership@mla.org). If a change of address also involves a change of institutional affiliation or a new e-mail address, that office should be informed of this fact at the same time.

Periodicals postage paid at New York, NY, and at additional mailing offices.
