Founded in 1947 as an independent forum for students of language, LINGUA has developed into one of the world's more important linguistic periodicals.

Each bi-monthly issue contains current work on a variety of linguistic topics. Although these articles are written from different points of view, they are required to contain such general theoretical implications as to be of interest to any linguist, whatever his own specialization.

No particular linguistic theories or scientific trends are favoured; scientific quality and scholarly standing are the only criteria applied in the selection of papers accepted for publication.

Besides papers, LINGUA publishes review articles surveying developments in the various fields of linguistics, as well as occasional discussions. A considerable number of pages in each issue are devoted to critical book reviews. In addition, a 'Publications Received' section, systematically ordered by topic, gives a useful account of recent linguistic publications.

LINGUA is published in two volumes per year, comprising six bi-monthly issues. The subscription price for 1974, Volumes 33 and 34 is Dfl. 146.00 or US$58.50 including postage and handling. Sample copies are available on request.

Subscription orders and sample copy requests should be sent to the Publisher or to your usual supplier.
