INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Send manuscripts and books for review to the editorial office. Manuscripts should run 6,000–11,000 words (or approximately 30–35 pages), not including endnotes, and should be printed double-spaced in 11- or 12-point font; endnotes must be printed double-spaced on separate pages following the text. The editors request an electronic submission (either by email attachment or by 3½" disk or cd-rom sent to the address below) of the following items:

(1) the manuscript (in order to protect the author's anonymity during the review process, the author's name should appear only on the title page of the essay);

(2) a 200-word abstract (this is used during the review process and if Church History publishes the essay, the abstract may be included on the Church History web page at www.churchhistory.org).

Please see www.churchhistory.org/churchhistoryguidelines.html for further manuscript submission guidelines. The editors will consider submissions of 70–90 pages for publication as "extended articles." Persons wishing to submit such manuscripts should query before sending them.

A Very Brief History of Eternity

Carlos Eire

"[A] fascinating story."

—Andrew Stark, Wall Street Journal

"A profound and unsettling inquiry."

—Bryce Christensen, Booklist (starred review)

"Carlos Eire's A Very Brief History of Eternity reminds us that our puzzlement over what comes after death has a history. The ways in which we ask about our relation to death and the hereafter do not take place in a vacuum. Instead, our wondering arises within particular historical contexts, where life and death are related in particular ways."

—Todd May, Forbes

Books of enduring scholarly value
CAMBRIDGE LIBRARY COLLECTION

Originating in a unique collaboration between the world's oldest publisher and the renowned Cambridge University Library, the Cambridge Library Collection makes important historical works accessible in new ways. The combination of state-of-the-art scanning technology and the Press's commitment to quality gives today's readers access to the content of books that until recently would have been available only in specialist libraries.

Already a pioneer in the re-publishing of titles from its own backlist, Cambridge University Press has extended its reach to include other books which are still of interest to researchers, students and the general reader. The Press's collaboration with Cambridge University Library and other partner libraries allows access to a vast range of out-of-copyright works, from which titles are selected with advice from leading specialists.

With subjects ranging from anthropology to zoology, the Cambridge Library Collection allows readers to own books they would otherwise find it hard to obtain, including the monumental Library Edition of the Works of John Ruskin edited by Cook and Wedderburn, the complete Naval Chronicle documenting warfare at sea in the Napoleonic period, accounts of the exploration of the Americas, Australia and China, and scientific writings by Darwin and his circle.

Each page is scanned and the resulting files undergo a rigorous process of cleaning, in which any blemishes are removed to obtain a crisp and legible text. Each book has a new cover design and a specially written blurb which highlights the relevance of the book to today's readers. The latest print-on-demand technology then ensures that the content of these rare and sometimes fragile books will be made available worldwide. The Collection is now available, in searchable form, as part of Cambridge Books Online.

The Real Luther

53-1180LWC

"Students and researchers should read this book as a model for how to do Reformation History."

Markus Wriedt, Goethe University Frankfurt/Main and Marquette University

"A fascinating history . . . Luther is both a Catholic and a Reformer at the same time."

Wolfgang Thönissen, Faculty of Theology, Paderborn

"I was constantly fascinated and sometimes even thrilled by his insights into Dr. Martin's continuity with medieval theology."

Bishop Richard J. Skiba, Milwaukee; Co-chair of the National Lutheran/Catholic Dialogue

Anticipating the 500th anniversary of the Reformation in 2017, Roman Catholic scholar Franz Posset explores the history of Luther's development in the crucial years of 1501–17 before Luther's views were disputed. The book includes:

- Illustrations from Luther's career
- A new translation of Melanchthon's memoirs of Luther's life
- A fresh chronology of Luther's life from 1501–17, based on the latest research
- Extensive references to both primary and secondary literature for Luther studies

Posset is an independent researcher and an associate editor of Luther Digest. In 2003, Renaissance and Reformation/Renaissance et Réforme awarded Posset the Natalie Zemon Davis Prize for superb scholarship.

The Church from Age to Age

A History from Galilee to Global Christianity

12-4370LWC

"A marvelous survey text. . . Its global frame of reference will be especially helpful to many. I strongly recommend this text for use in Christian colleges, seminaries, churches, and Protestant homes around the world. I will certainly be using it in my own teaching ministry."

Douglas A. Sweeney, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School

"Both timely and timeless. It . . . takes cognizance not only of the history of the Western and Eastern churches, but also of the history of the churches in the global south where the majority of Christianity currently resides."

Joel C. Elowsky, Concordia University Wisconsin and Eastern University

- One volume (1048 pp.)
- Historical narrative extending into the 21st century
- Extensive timeline
- 15 historical maps
- Readings from primary sources
- Lists of Popes, Patriarchs, and Councils
- General and period specific bibliographies

Founded in 1869, Concordia is the publishing house of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.
