Representation & Renewal

2012 APSA
Annual Meeting & Exhibition
August 30–September 2, 2012
New Orleans, LA

Join us in New Orleans!

Join APSA in New Orleans to address the latest scholarship in political science and to explore this year's theme "Representation and Renewal." APSA and the 2012 Program Chairs Lynn Vavreck, University of California, Los Angeles, and John M. Carey, Dartmouth College, encourage you to attend the 2012 APSA Annual Meeting in New Orleans, Louisiana.

BE PART OF THE CONVERSATION

Nearly 7,000 political scientists will gather to exchange ideas. Take advantage of more than 800 sessions per day. To learn more about the 2012 Annual Meeting, read the complete theme statement, and view the program, visit www.apsanet.org/2012.

See you in August!

Philosophy of Perspectives on Politics

Perspectives seeks to nurture a political science public sphere, publicizing important scholarly topics, ideas, and innovations, linking scholarly authors and readers, and promoting broad reflexive discussion among political scientists about the work that we do and why this work matters.

A full-length copy of the journal's editorial philosophy appears in Perspectives on Politics 8(1): 7–10 and also on the web at http://www.apsanet.org/content_44375.cfm.

Submission and Review

For submission guidelines, please see http://www.apsanet.org/content_44360.cfm.

Our editorial team discusses all submissions. Those that seem promising are evaluated by several external reviewers—with full confidentiality on both sides—and then accepted, returned for further revisions, or declined with suggestions of more appropriate venues for publication.

About APSA

Founded in 1903, the American Political Science Association is the leading professional organization for the study of political science and serves more than 15,000 members in over 80 countries. With a range of programs and services for individuals, departments, and institutions, APSA brings together political scientists from all fields of inquiry, regions, and occupational endeavors within and outside academe in order to expand awareness and understanding of politics.

The direct advancement of knowledge is at the core of APSA activities. We promote scholarly communication in political science through a variety of initiatives including publishing three distinguished journals: American Political Science Review, Perspectives on Politics, and PS: Political Science and Politics.
