TO THOSE WISHING TO SUBMIT MANUSCRIPTS

Manuscripts for consideration should be submitted in four double-spaced copies. Footnotes should be double-spaced and placed at the end of the manuscript. Manuscripts are sent to referees anonymously and should be prepared accordingly. Library of Congress transliteration should be used. In general, articles should not exceed twenty-five pages. Manuscripts will not be returned unless postage is provided.

The policy of the Slavic Review is not to consider materials that have been published or that are being considered for publication elsewhere.

Publication of articles in the Slavic Review is ordinarily limited to those submitted by members of the AAASS. Nonmembers wishing to submit manuscripts are asked to request a membership application.

SOVIET STUDIES

SINO-RUSSIAN RELATIONS

A Short History

R.K.I. Quested

Written for the student and general reader, this is the first concise historical survey of relations between Russia and China. It opens with an outline of each nation's history prior to their first diplomatic encounter in 1618, then provides a clear and skillful presentation of the development of their relationship from the early days of the Qing Dynasty to the accession of Yuri Andropov. Paper $7.95 0-86861-255-3, Cloth $20.00 0-86861-247-2 184pp. maps, time-charts November 1984.

РОССИЯ

THE SOVIET UNION AND TERRORISM

Roberta Goren

Edited by Jillian Becker, with an introduction by Robert Conquest

To what extent is the Soviet Union involved in the waves of terrorism which have plagued the world in the last two decades? This fascinating book begins with an analysis of the changing official Soviet thinking on terrorism since 1917. Using well-documented reports, it then examines Soviet involvement in several contemporary terrorist movements. Paper $11.50 (approx.) 0-04-327074-3 Cloth $27.50 (approx.) 0-04-327073-5 280pp. November 1984.
