

THE ROMAN FATE

An Essay in Interpretation

By W. E. HEITLAND, M.A. Demy 8vo. 3s net

"It has only some eighty pages, and yet in that space it gives you more than Gibbon could give—considered opinion as to the decadence of that mighty Empire of the past by which, as in a mirror, can be seen a reflection of modern policies, where they tend, what may happen if the lessons of the past are forgotten Read studiously, thought over, this little book is both portent and guide."—The Pall Mall Gazette and Globe.
