ANNOUNCING . . .

A new edition of an outstanding text

BROOKS and WARREN'S

UNDERSTANDING FICTION

Second Edition

In this new edition of a book which has made its reputation as an expert analytical study of the short story, the authors have expanded the text to include examples from more recent authors. It now includes 58 selections, 21 more than the earlier edition, 40 of which are new. Among the authors now included are: Stephen Crane, Albert Camus, Truman Capote, and Saul Bellow. The book has been enriched by the addition of two new sections. One section contains 13 short stories which are not followed by critical analyses and questions, thereby encouraging the student to analyze the story independently. The other section presents 4 short stories, each story followed by its author's discussion of how he wrote it.

To be published in January, 1960.
