Modern Intellectual History

Editors

Charles Capper, Boston University, USA

Duncan Kelly, University of Cambridge, UK

Samuel Moyn, Harvard University, USA

Sophia Rosenfeld, Yale University, USA

This important journal serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship on intellectual and cultural history from the mid-seventeenth century to the present, with primary attention to Europe and the Americas and to transnational developments that encompass the non-West. MIH enquires into this era's intellectual discourses and texts, their contextual origins and reception, and the recovery of their historical meanings. The journal encompasses various forms of intellectual and cultural history, including political thought and culture, philosophy, religion, literature and literary criticism, social sciences, natural sciences, visual arts and aesthetic theory, communications, law, economic thought, social and cultural theory, psychology, anthropology, music and the history of the book.

Cambridge Journal of Postcolonial Literary Inquiry

Editor

Ato Quayson, University of Toronto, Canada

The Cambridge Journal of Postcolonial Literary Inquiry is a new peer-review journal that aims to deepen our grasp of postcolonial literary history while enabling us to stay comprehensively informed of all critical developments in the field. The Journal will provide a forum for publishing research covering the full spectrum of postcolonial critical readings and approaches, whether these center on established or lesser known postcolonial writers or draw upon fields such as Modernism, Medievalism, Shakespeare and Victorian Studies that have hitherto not been considered central to postcolonial literary studies, yet have generated some of the best insights on postcolonialism. The Journal aims to be critically robust, historically nuanced, and will put the broadly defined areas of literature and aesthetics at the center of postcolonial exploration and critique. Essays of up to 8000 words on any aspect of postcolonial literature, literary history and aesthetics should be sent to the editor at pli@cambridge.org.

Perspectives on Politics

Published for the American Political Science Association

Editor

Jeffrey C. Isaac, Indiana University, USA

Perspectives on Politics seeks to provide a space for broad and synthetic discussion within the political science profession and between the profession and the broader scholarly and reading publics. Such discussion necessarily draws on and contributes to the scholarship published in the more specialized journals that dominate our discipline. At the same time, Perspectives seeks to promote a complementary form of broad public discussion and synergistic understanding within the profession that is essential to advancing research and promoting scholarly community.

Perspectives seeks to nurture a political science public sphere, publicizing important scholarly topics, ideas, and innovations, linking scholarly authors and readers, and promoting broad reflexive discussion among political scientists about the work that we do and why this work matters.

Perspectives on Politics is sold ONLY as part of a joint subscription with American Political Science Review and PS: Political Science & Politics.

Studies in American Political Development

Editors

Eric Schickler, University of California, Berkeley, USA

Keith E. Whittington, Princeton University, USA

Anthony S. Chen, Northwestern University, USA

Studies in American Political Development (SAPD) publishes scholarship on political change and institutional development in the United States from a variety of theoretical viewpoints. Articles focus on governmental institutions over time and on their social, economic, and cultural setting. In-depth presentation in a longer format allows contributors to elaborate on the complex patterns of state-society relations. SAPD encourages an interdisciplinary approach and recognizes the value of comparative perspectives.

Instructions for contributors

Editorial policy

Journal of American Studies publishes works by scholars from all over the world on American literatures, history, politics, foreign relations, philosophy, art history, visual culture, economics, film, popular culture, geography, material culture and related subjects. We also welcome research topics covering fields related to American Studies and which include (in alphabetical order): African American Studies; African Diasporic Studies; America in the World Studies; Asian American Studies; Chicana/o and Latina/o Studies; Chinese American Studies; Cultural Studies; Globalisation Studies; Indigenous Studies; Hemispheric Studies; Slavery Studies; Transatlantic Studies; Transnational Studies. A Notes and Comments section provides a forum for shorter pieces and responses from readers to points made in articles, reviews, states of the field/thought pieces/review essays/roundtable contributions. We are also keen to consider contributions that go beyond the normal confines of an academic article—whether these be Research Notes, States of the Field pieces, Thought Pieces, Forums and Roundtable Discussions, Exhibition Commentaries, Research Notes. Proposals on this front should be emailed directly to the editors.

Journal of American Studies welcomes proposals for special issues or special collections of essays within an issue. Proposing editors should initially submit a synopsis of a minimum of 1500 words detailing the academic significance of the collection, and 200 words abstracts of each of the essays as well as a one line contributor biography. These will be considered by the JAS Editorial Team and the journal's Editorial Board and then sent to readers for feedback. If the proposal passes the initial stage, JAS will then invite full essays, to be read and reviewed using our standard process for submissions.

For more information, please contact the Co-Editors: Professor Celeste-Marie Bernier and Dr. Bevan Sewell (full contact information provided below).

Book reviews

Editorial correspondence relating to book reviews should be sent to the following address: Dr Sinéad Moynihan, Department of English, University of Exeter, The Queen's Building, The Queen's Drive, Exeter EX4 4QJ, UK, Email: jasreviews@exeter.ac.uk

Authors who do not yet have an account on the online submission site will need to register before submitting a manuscript. If you are unsure about your login details or whether you have an account or not, please use the password help field on the login page. Do not create a new account if you are unsure.

If you experience any difficulties submitting your manuscript, please contact ScholarOne support at <http://mchelp.manuscriptcentral.com/gethelpnow/question.htm>

Any editorial correspondence should be addressed to the Co-Editors: Professor Celeste-Marie Bernier and Dr. Bevan Sewell on the following email address: jas@baas.ac.uk

Submission of an article is taken to imply that it is an original work of scholarship and has therefore not previously been published, and has not been submitted for publication elsewhere. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press and British Association of American Studies (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of your paper.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media and as regards images rights and high resolution files, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

2. Manuscript preparation

Articles should not exceed 8,000 words (excluding footnotes) OR 12,000 words (including footnotes).

Manuscripts should be submitted via the online submission system at <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jamstuds>. Authors should remove their name from the manuscript and should ensure that their manuscript is fully anonymised. Authors should make sure that any tracked changes on the file have been removed.

File names should be of the type AMSauthorsurname.doc or .rtf for ease of identification. Diagrams, maps, and illustrations should be made into an eps file or a tif file and the file name should be AMSauthorsurname1.eps or .tif (where the number is the figure number) - please refer to http://assets.cambridge.org/AMS/AMS/_ifc.pdf for further information regarding technical specifications. If you request colour figures in the printed version, you will be contacted by CCC-Rightslink who are acting on our behalf to collect Author Charges. Please follow their instructions in order to avoid any delay in the publication of your article.

Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.

Open Access Policies: Please visit <http://journals.cambridge.org/OpenAccess> for information on our open access policies, compliance with major funding bodies, and guidelines on depositing your manuscript in an institutional repository.

3. Text preparation

Authors should refer to the detailed instructions provided here http://assets.cambridge.org/AMS/AMS/_ifc.pdf before submitting their work.
