

advances

in psychiatric treatment

CPD Online

367 New from CPD Online

Cochrane corner

368 Antidepressant treatment for postnatal depression

Emma Molyneaux, Louise M. Howard, Helen R. McGeown, Amar M. Karia & Kylee Trevillion

Articles

369 Crossing the Rubicon? Legal developments in assisted suicide

Susan F. Welsh

378 Commentary Legalising assisted suicide: keeping sight of the fundamental issues

Robert Preston

380 Managing delirium in everyday practice: towards cognitive-friendly hospitals

Henry O'Connell, Sean P. Kennelly, Walter Cullen & David J. Meagher

390 Commentary Cognitive-friendly hospitals: a leap from Flat Earthers to Galileo

David Jolley

392 Severe and enduring eating disorders: recognition and management

Paul Robinson

402 Commentary Balancing risk requires a balanced approach

William Rhys Jones & John F. Morgan

405 Evaluating malingering in cognitive and memory examinations: a guide for clinicians

Derek K. Tracy

413 Drug and alcohol addiction: new challenges

Jason Luty

422 Mindfulness-based training in residential settings: rationale, advantages and obstacles

Fabrizio Didonna & Shaun Bhattacharjee

Cover image

Assisted suicide is unlawful in the UK and many other countries. Susan Welsh (pp. 369–377) outlines current legislation in the UK and overseas, and points to court judgment and legislative proposals that aim to change it. Image: © iStockphoto/German.

<http://apt.rcpsych.org>

ISSN 1355-5146