

THE EDITOR'S CORNER

The Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration announces a postdoctoral fellowship in business history for 1978–79 in the amount of $18,500. For details, see the announcement facing page 415 in this issue of the Review.

* * *

The Business History Conference will hold its annual meeting at the Eleutherian Mills Library, Greenville, Delaware, on February 24 and 25, 1978. Professor Herman Freudenberger of Tulane University, New Orleans, Louisiana 70118, has arranged the program. For information about membership in the Conference, which is open to anyone with an interest in business history, or attendance at the meeting, write to the Secretary, Professor Fred Bateman, School of Business, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana 47401. The themes of the meeting are International Business History and Law and Economics Relating to Business.

* * *

The Eleutherian Mills — Hagley Foundation and the History Department of the University of Delaware jointly sponsor a program of graduate study for students interested in one or more of the following academic specialities: American economic history, the history of technology, and museum studies. Financial aid consisting of a $3,000 stipend per year, full tuition, and a small travel fund is available. In addition, in the case of fellowships funded by the Foundation, a dependency allowance of $1,200 per year is available to eligible individuals. These awards are automatically renewable for one year beyond the initial year for students enrolled as M.A. candidates and for three years beyond the initial year for those pursuing the Ph.D. The program is solely for students studying at the University of Delaware. Deadline for applications is February 7, 1978. For further information write: Coordinator, Hagley Program, Eleutherian Mills-Hagley Foundation, Greenville, Wilmington, Delaware 19807.

* * *

The Fernand Braudel Center for the Study of Economies, Historical Systems, and Civilizations, at the State University of New York at Binghamton, announces that it will publish a quarterly Review. For further information, write Immanuel Wallerstein, Director, State University of New York at Binghamton, Binghamton, New York 13901.

* * *

Franz Steiner Verlag announces the inception of a new journal, Zeitschrift für Unternehmensgeschichte, which they will publish three times a year. The publication is devoted to business history in all its branches, and contributions in English and French will be accepted. For further information, write Vincent Sieveking, Franz Steiner Verlag, 6200 Wiesbaden, Friedrichstrasse 24, Postfach 472, West Germany.

* * *

The Johns Hopkins University Department of History will again hold its Summer Seminar on Quantitative Techniques in Historical Research, May 30 through July 21, 1978. The program, which will emphasize basic statistical and computer skills and the fundamentals of project design, is designed for faculty members and graduate students, but undergraduates have also taken it successfully. Applications are due by April 1, 1978. Write Professor Richard Goldthwaite, Chairman, Department of History, The Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Maryland 21218 for further information.

* * *

The National Park Service has published Historic American Engineering Record Catalog, 1976, a 193-page paperback book which is a compilation of all documentation materials produced by the Historic American Engineering Record from its beginning in 1969 through December 1975. It should be of considerable interest to persons interested in industrial archaeology. For further information, write Douglas L. Griffin, Chief, Historic American Engineering Record Division, National Park Service, U.S. Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C. 20240; or send $3.50 to the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

* * *

The New York State Historical Association is accepting manuscripts for its New York State Historical Association Manuscript Award, for which the deadline is February 1, 1978. The prize, consisting of $1000 and assistance in publication, was awarded this year to Edward K. Spann, Professor of History, Indiana State University, Terre Haute, for his monograph, "The New Metropolis: New York City, 1840-1857." For further information, write to Dr. Wendell Tripp, Editorial Associate, New York State Historical Association, Cooperstown, New York 13326.

* * *

The Indiana Historical Society will award two pre-doctoral fellowships of $2000 each in Indiana history or the history of the Old Northwest. Deadline for applications is March 15, 1978. Write Gayle Thornbrough, Indiana Historical Society, 315 West Ohio Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46202.

* * *

The Kress Library of the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration and the Goethe Institute of Boston presented an exhibition, "Dialogue in Political Economy — Translations from and into German in the 18th Century," at the Baker Library, Harvard University, November 16-December 30, 1977. A copy of the catalogue, compiled and with an introduction by Kenneth Carpenter, is available from the Kress Library, Baker Library, Harvard University, Soldiers Field, Boston, Massachusetts 02163, for five dollars.

• • •

We have received the following books, in addition to those reviewed:

Adams, J. D. R., and J. Whalley, The International Taxation of Multi-national Enterprise in Developed Countries (Westport, Conn.: Greenwood Press, 1977), pp. 178, $19.95.

Ammer, Christine, and Dean S. Ammer, Dictionary of Business and Economics (New York: Free Press, 1977), pp. 461, $19.95.

Balachandran, M., A Guide to Trade and Securities Statistics (Ann Arbor, Michigan: Pierian Press, 1977), pp. 185, $14.95.

Fiegehen, G. C., P. S. Lansley, and A. D. Smith, Poverty and Progress in Britain, 1953-73 (New York: Cambridge University Press, 1977), pp. 177, $12.95.

Frank, Andre Gunder, On Capitalist Underdevelopment (New York: Oxford University Press, 1976), pp. 113, $1.90 paper.

Holbert, Hayward Janes, A History of Professional Management in American Industry (New York: Arno Press, 1976), pp. 229, $18.00. A dissertation accepted by the New York University School of Education in 1940.

Honour, Frances M., The State of the Industrial Revolution in 1776 (New York: Vantage Press, 1977), pp. 114, $5.95.

Lewenhak, Sheila, Women and Trade Unions: An Outline History of Women in the British Trade Union Movement (New York: St. Martin's Press, 1977), pp. 308, $14.95.

Little, Anthony J., Deceleration in the Eighteenth-Century British Economy (Totowa, NJ: Rowman and Littlefield, 1976), pp. 111, $13.50.

Morelli, Roberta, La Seta Fiorentina Nel Cinquecento (Milan: Dott. A. Guiffre Editore, 1976), pp. 95, no price given.

Johnson, Paul, Enemies of Society (London: Weidenfeld & Nicholson, 1977), pp. 278, £5.95 in the United Kingdom.

Nayyar, Deepak, India's Exports and Export Policies in the 1960s (New York: Cambridge University Press, 1977), pp. 392, $28.50.

Post, John D., The Last Great Subsistence Crisis in the Western World (Baltimore: Johns Hopkins University Press, 1977), pp. 240, $12.95. A study of the effects of the exceptionally cold period following the Napoleonic Wars, and especially the cold summer of 1816, on food production in the Western world.

Thuillier, Guy, Pour une Histoire du Quotidien au XIXe Siecle en Nivernais (Paris: Mouton & Co., 1977), pp. 490, no price given.

Vidal, Gore, et al., Great American Families (New York: Norton, 1977), pp. 190, $15.95

Amos Tuck School of Business Administration, Dartmouth College, The Business System: A Bicentennial View (Hanover, NH: University Press of New England, 1977), pp. 91, no price given. Collection of papers read at the Seventy-fifth Anniversary Celebration of the Tuck School.

• • •