

Announcements

The joint meeting of the National History of Education Society and the Pacific Coast History of Education Society will meet at the University of California, Berkeley, on November 2, 3 and 4, 1975. This meeting will follow the AESA meeting held in San Francisco from October 30th to November 2nd. Professor Michael Katz, Vice-President of the National History of Education Society is in charge of the program. He will work in conjunction with the Pacific Coast's program committee. This committee includes Professors Charles Burgess and David Madsen of the University of Washington and Professor Wm. A. Bruneau of the University of British Columbia.

The Midwest History of Education Society will hold its annual conference at Loyola University of Chicago on October 24-25, 1975. Papers (in triplicate) may be sent to Dr. Rosemary V. Donatelli, Program Chairman, Loyola University, 820 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60611.