Following In His Steps

A Biography of Charles M. Sheldon
Timothy Miller

"Timothy Miller's well-documented biography of Charles M. Sheldon richly illumines a fascinating chapter in American religious history as it tells the story of a flamboyant reformer and crusader, prolific inspirational author, and beloved parish minister. . . . A practitioner of the social gospel he popularized, an innovative dreamer and restless activist who was also a determined loner, 'St. Charles of Topeka' moves through these informative pages much as he moved through life, as both a highly visible but very private person."—Robert T. Handy, Union Theological Seminary.

Prophecy and Gnosis

APOCALYPTICISM IN THE WAKE OF THE LUTHERAN REFORMATION

Robin Bruce Barnes

This book is an inquiry into the nature and effects of eschatological expectancy in Lutheran Germany during the century following the initial triumphs of Protestantism. Emphasizing both prophetic and gnostic elements, the author reveals the continuing intensity of apocalyptic excitement among Luther's heirs and shows that, as the 16th century progressed, apocalyptic thinking in Lutheran areas tended to become more explicit, more reasoned, and more comprehensive. $39.50

THE ALBERT C. OUTLER PRIZE IN ECUMENICAL CHURCH HISTORY

The Outler Prize was established to encourage the critical study of ecumenical church history, broadly conceived, and to facilitate the publication of such studies. "Ecumenical" is to be construed as chiefly concerned with the problems of Christian unity-and-disunity (doctrinal, cultural, institutional) in any period of church history; or with interactions between Christianity and other religious movements. Works of a partisan nature are excluded. The following categories are eligible:

- a. Studies, chiefly narrative and critical, of ecumenical church history dealing with historical controversies and divisions, or with notable instances of reconciliation and consensus.
- b. Analyses of church councils, dialogues, and debates, or interactions between Christianity and other religious traditions.
- c. Biographical studies of significant leaders, or of persons whose involvement in ecumenical dialogue and action was noteworthy.
- d. Critical editions (preferably annotated) of significant ecumenical documents.
- e. Bibliographical reviews and evaluations in major areas of ecumenical church history.
- f. Pioneering studies that advance scholarly knowledge and ecumenical understanding.

The prize consists of an award of $1000 to the author and a grant of up to $3000 in subvention of publication (or in exceptional cases, for necessary expenses in the preparation of a book-length manuscript accepted for publication). The prize will be awarded annually, though no award will be made in any year when none of the manuscripts is adjudged to be outstanding. Complete manuscripts in final form must be received by William B. Miller, Secretary, American Society of Church History, 305 East Country Club Lane, Wallingford, PA 19086, by 1 June. The prize will be announced at the annual meeting of the Society in December.

PHILIP SCHAFF

Christian Scholar and Ecumenical Prophet

George H. Shriver

"Philip Schaff was one of the most influential religious scholars and activists in the U.S. during the nineteenth century. A pietist and scholar, a U.S. immigrant who remained influential in Europe, founder of the American Society of Church History (which commissioned this biography), author of a seven-volume history of the Christian Church, and driving force behind the Revised Version of the English Bible, Schaff richly deserves a biography. . . . [Shriver] offers insight into a neglected but important figure and movement in American religious history." —Choice

"The biography is based on solid scholarship, but it is intended primarily for general readership and gives an attractive portrait of an attractive personality. . . . Highly and warmly recommended." —ADRS Newsletter
