CAMBRIDGE LIBRARY COLLECTION
Books of enduring scholarly value

In the spirit of Cambridge University Press's continued commitment to innovation and enterprise, the Cambridge Library Collection launched in July 2009, making an initial group of 475 out-of-print books available again. Another 1,000 will follow by the end of 2009 and 3,000 titles a year will be added as the program continues.

Drawing from the world-renowned collections in the Cambridge University Library, these books are carefully selected by experts in each subject area because of their scholarly importance or as landmarks in the history of their academic discipline.

Cambridge University Press is using state-of-the-art scanning machines to capture the contents of each book. The files are processed to give a consistently clear, crisp image, and the books finished to the high-quality standard for which the press is recognized around the world. The latest print-on-demand technology ensures that the books will remain available indefinitely.

The Cambridge Library Collection will revive books of enduring scholarly value across a wide range of disciplines in the humanities, social sciences, science and technology.

About APSA

Founded in 1903, the American Political Science Association is the leading professional organization for the study of political science and serves more than 15,000 members in over 80 countries. With a range of programs and services for individuals, departments, and institutions, APSA brings together political scientists from all fields of inquiry, regions, and occupational endeavors within and outside academe in order to expand awareness and understanding of politics.

The direct advancement of knowledge is at the core of APSA activities. We promote scholarly communication in political science through a variety of initiatives including publishing three distinguished journals: American Political Science Review, Perspectives on Politics, and PS: Political Science and Politics.
