NORTH AMERICAN ARCHAEOLOGIST

A new journal from the publishers of Abstracts in Anthropology

The only general journal dedicated solely to North America, with total coverage of archaeological activity in the USA, Canada, and northern Mexico, surveys all aspects of prehistoric and historical archaeology within an evolutionary perspective. It will incorporate the results of Cultural Resource Management and work within state and regional societies along with the more traditional academic-museum research activities.

In the Land of the Olmec

VOLUME 1. THE ARCHAEOLOGY OF SAN LORENZO TENOCHTITLAN

VOLUME 2. THE PEOPLE OF THE RIVER

By Michael D. Coe and Richard A. Diehl

In the Land of the Olmec presents the results of a large-scale expedition to explore the age and nature of the Olmec, Mesoamerica's first complex society. Reports on landscape, excavations, magnetometry, ceramics, lithics, monuments, faunal remains, radiocarbon samples, and petrography in volume 1 provide data to begin to explain why and how Olmec civilization first arose here. Volume 2 presents one of the most detailed investigations yet carried out of human adaptation to the New World tropics.

Mexican Masks

By Donald Cordry

This magnificent book preserves the crucial link to Mexico's past represented by Indian ritual dance masks. It contains a wealth of information about mask-making and mask use, describing materials and techniques, regional and ethnic variations, and shamanistic, symbolic, and social functions. Each of the hundreds of illustrations is accompanied by a detailed description.

Skywatchers of Ancient Mexico

By Anthony F. Aveni

Combining as it does the romance of space with the mystery of the past, the study of pre-Columbian skywatchers of the New World has drawn increasing scientific and popular attention in recent years. Aveni, one of the pioneers in this new interdisciplinary field, couples basic astronomy with archaeological and ethnological data to synthesize what is known of ancient astronomy in this hemisphere.

PREHISTORIC AMERICA

AN ECOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVE

Betty J. Meggers

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION

New Revised Second Edition, 1979.
Now Available in Cloth
for the First Time!

A new edition of Betty Meggers' classic survey of new world archeology with a new preface examining recent findings from an ecological perspective.

Here the sweep of American pre-history is compressed into one, brief, profusely illustrated volume by adapting the culture-area concept to take maximum advantage of environmental similarities between North and South America. However, rather than take these parallels for granted, PREHISTORIC AMERICA recognizes them as phenomena that need to be explained: They are neither fortuitous nor inconsequential, but an indication of the strength of environmental pressures on cultural development.

Living Archaeology

Richard A. Gould

Using a range of case studies including his own observations of Australian Aborigines, Gould presents a unified theory of ethnoarchaeology. He demonstrates a reliable way to infer adaptive behavior in prehistoric communities through the study of such behavior in a contemporary society and analyzing the evidence in material discards. Professor Gould examines and dismisses the argument by analogy and proposes an alternative argument by anomaly. His approach looks for deviations from expected utilitarian behavior and uses the deviations to discover relationships that may have had no counterpart in any known historic or contemporary society. Living Archaeology examines differences between actual and anticipated human behavior, and suggests that understanding the reasons for these contrasts is what characterizes ethnoarchaeology at its best. New Studies in Archaeology

Archaeological Constructs

An Aspect of Theoretical Archaeology

Jean-Claude Gardin

Gardin investigates the way that archaeological information is selected and presented and the reasoning processes that these different modes of presentation embody. Looking ahead to the time when data banks, computers, and micro-publishing will make information more accessible to the archaeologist, he looks in detail at the many familiar stages of recording and interpretation and shows how important it is for the criteria on which they are based to be made explicit and systematic. SAA PAPERS I

The Society for American Archaeology introduces the first volume of its special publication series, SAA Papers. SAA Papers I provides an in-depth study of intraregional exchange of ceramics in Mesoamerica and the American Southwest.

The eight papers in this volume address three common themes: the approaches and techniques useful in discriminating different production centers; the characterization of the structure of localized exchange systems; and the strategies used by local communities and social groups. Two commentaries offer critical perspectives on the approaches covered in the papers.

The volume includes papers by: Robert L. Rands and Ronald L. Bishop; Ronald L. Bishop; Prudence M. Rice; Lawrence P. Allen; H. Wolcott Toll, Thomas C. Windes, and Peter J. McKenna; Haree L. Deutchman; Stephen Plog; Robert E. Fry.

Commentaries are contributed by Dean E. Arnold and Ian Hodder.

Series editors: Steven LeBlanc, Christopher Peebles, Polly Bickel, Jeremy Sabloff.

MODELS AND METHODS IN REGIONAL EXCHANGE

edited by Robert E. Fry

46th ANNUAL MEETING SOCIETY FOR AMERICAN ARCHAEOLOGY

San Diego Convention Center
San Diego, California
Wednesday, April 29 to Saturday, May 2, 1981

Annual Meeting Chairperson: Reynold J. Ruppe, Department of Anthropology, Arizona State University, Tempe, AZ 85281.

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTIONS

The Executive Committee has ruled that the privilege of presenting papers at the annual meeting of the Society will be restricted to paid-up members of the Society. The Committee further decided that a person may not deliver more than one paper although (s)he may, at the same meeting, chair a session or serve as joint author of a paper presented by someone else.

Completed symposia proposals, long and short abstracts of papers, abstracts of contributed papers and of research reports must reach the program chairperson by October 31, 1980. All proposals and abstracts should be submitted on appropriate SAA forms which may be acquired by writing the Program Chairperson. Long abstracts of contributed papers and symposium papers will be used for evaluation by the Program Committee. Authors of contributed papers and symposia organizers will be notified of the Program Committee's decision as soon as possible. Short abstracts of all papers and research reports accepted for presentation will be included in the final program.

SYMPOSIA (2-hour, 4-hour)

A symposium consists of a group of papers on a common theme. The symposium topic and the individual papers within it will be reviewed. Changes, such as consolidation of two symposia or changes in the individual papers, may be recommended.

Symposia suggestions, including title of symposium and name, address, and telephone number of the organizer(s), must be sent before October 1, 1980. At the same time, organizer(s) should request copies of Guidelines for Symposium Organizers.

Complete symposia proposals must be submitted as a package by the symposium organizer(s) and must be received by October 31, 1980. The package should include for every paper presented in the symposium: long abstracts of no less than 300 and no more than 600 words, double-spaced in clean, typewritten form (5 copies); short abstracts of 100 words or less of each paper with author(s)' name(s) and institution, typewritten on separate pages in the style shown in the sample below; request for audiovisual equipment (type of projector, blackboard, etc.).

CONTRIBUTED PAPERS (20 minutes)

Contributed papers are to be distinguished from Research Reports in that they generalize, synthesize, or compare and are addressed to problems of theory, method, culture history, or culture process. Contributed papers will be reviewed, and changes may be suggested.

Contributed papers must follow the same format as the symposia papers, including short and long abstracts, as well as suggestions as to topical and/or geographical area to which the paper may be assigned (e.g., Plains Archaeology, Method and Theory, Ceramic Analysis).

RESEARCH REPORTS (10 minutes)

A research report is a description of the results of a recent field or laboratory research project. This year the research report section will be divided into oral presentation and poster session; the author may choose which form to use. The poster session is especially appropriate for research results that can be described graphically better than verbally. Research reports will be reviewed. If the number submitted exceeds the space and time available, they will be accepted in the order of submission.

Research reports must be received in the following form: abstract of 100 words or less; suggestions as to topical or geographical area; audiovisual equipment required.

Sample Abstract:

Name of Senior Author (Institution) Title in Caps. Abstract in single paragraph form:

Smith, Jane J. (Arizona) THE ROLE OF ARCHAEOLOGY IN SOCIETY.

Archaeology's Role in Modern Society is discussed, with an emphasis on . . . (up to 100 words maximum for short abstract and 300-600 words for long abstract).

Junior Author(s) Name(s) in the following form at bottom of page:

Jones, Peter J. (see Smith, Jane J.)

Brown, Susan (see Smith, Jane J.)

Please follow form exactly. Submit 2 copies of short abstract, 5 copies of long abstracts.

All other scheduling and room requests (organization or committee meetings, promotional booths, etc.) should be directed to Lucille D. Horn, 1703 New Hampshire Ave., N.W., Washington, DC 20009.
