STUDIES IN CHURCH HISTORY

VOLUME IV

E. J. BRILL

---

This fourth volume in the series Studies in Church History contains the main papers and shorter communications read to the Ecclesiastical History Society at its fourth summer meeting in York. Most contributors treat some aspect or other of the history of the Northern Province, and the subjects dealt with range from Paulinus of York to Archbishop Vernon Harcourt, and include the archives of York, perpetual chantries, the status of the Elizabethan parochial clergy, and Yorkshire recusant history. We are sure that those who have found the previous volumes in this series of interest will not be disappointed in this new addition.
